

23 Proposed Ordinance

(By Petition)

City Of Nelsonville

A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

Shall the Charter of the City of Nelsonville, Ohio, submitted to the Electors of the City of Nelsonville on November 8, 1994, which became effective January 1, 1995, and its subsequent amendments, be abolished and return to the same form of government as it had prior to and up to January 1, 1995, to be effective January 1, 2026?

Upon approval of this initiative submitted to the electors of the City of Nelsonville at the general election on November 5, 2024, the election of all city offices which were required by the form of government of Nelsonville Ohio prior to January 1, 1995, shall be elected during the municipal elections of 2025. Those elected shall take office on January 1, 2026.

Shall the proposed ordinance to abolish charter and return to same form of government as it had prior be adopted?
