letter, I noted Latimer admitted to striking Vandevender "five or six times in the head". Latimer wrote that Vandevender was mad at him and was a "cho-mo hater" and had made threats to cut his penis off. Latimer further wrote that he heard Vandevender was a "vegetable" and his intentions were to put "40 or 50 stitches" in Vandevender's head. Please review Latimer's letter for specific details as the letter was scanned into the case file.

I, along with Investigator [REDACTED], subsequently met with James Vandevender. It should be noted during this meeting we also met with Vandevender's mother, who was identified as PEGGY VANDEVENDER, as well as Vandevender's attorney, identified as Keith Hanratty, who had a contact number of [REDACTED]. Vandevender, with the consent of his attorney, voluntarily agreed to provide a taped statement concerning this incident. The synopsis of Vandevender's statement is as follows: Vandevender stated he doesn't recall the actual assault. Vandevender stated he woke up from a coma on 072812 while at [REDACTED] Hospital located at [REDACTED] in the City of St. Paul, MN. Vandevender stated he didn't know what happened or why he was in the hospital. Vandevender indicated his appearance had changed as he reportedly lost approximately 40 pounds, had grown a beard, and had scars all over his head. Vandevender stated he was informed by the correctional officers, who were standing on guard, that he had been assaulted. Vandevender stated he suffered a traumatic brain injury. Vandevender stated his face is numb and that he struggles with speaking and reading. Please review Vandevender's transcribed taped statement for full details.

This investigation is pending per obtaining the run record on behalf of Lakes Region EMS pursuant to a search warrant.
