

Citizens' Group To Study Smog

LOS ANGELES (UP)—The Southern California Air Pollution Foundation, a newly-formed citizens committee to fight smog, will file articles of incorporation today with the Secretary of State in Sacramento.

Fred D. Fagg Jr., president of the foundation and president of the University of Southern California, said the group, organized Nov. 6, will finance research on smog, coordinate smog investigations and publish and distribute its findings to the public.