

Mail Ballots and Election Results – Washoe County

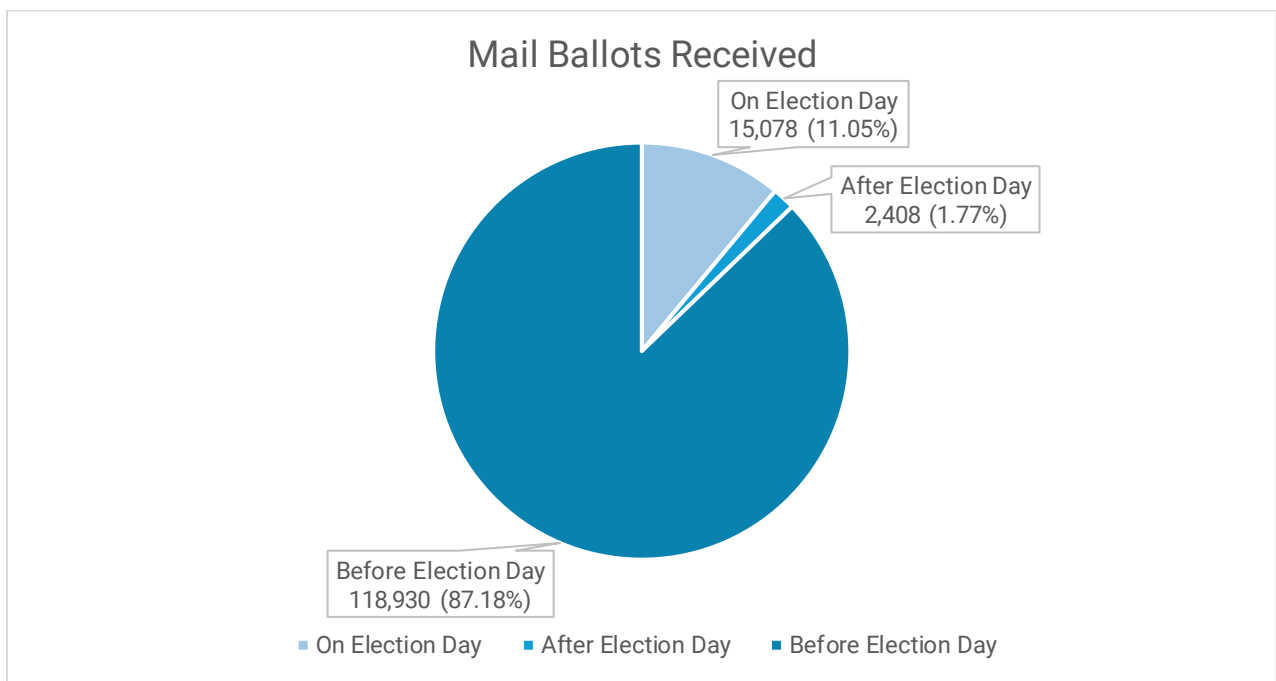

The data in this report reflects when Washoe County’s Registrar of Voters Office received mail ballots and when those ballots were tabulated for election results for the 2024 General Election. Washoe County received more than 98% of the total mail ballots on or before Election Day.

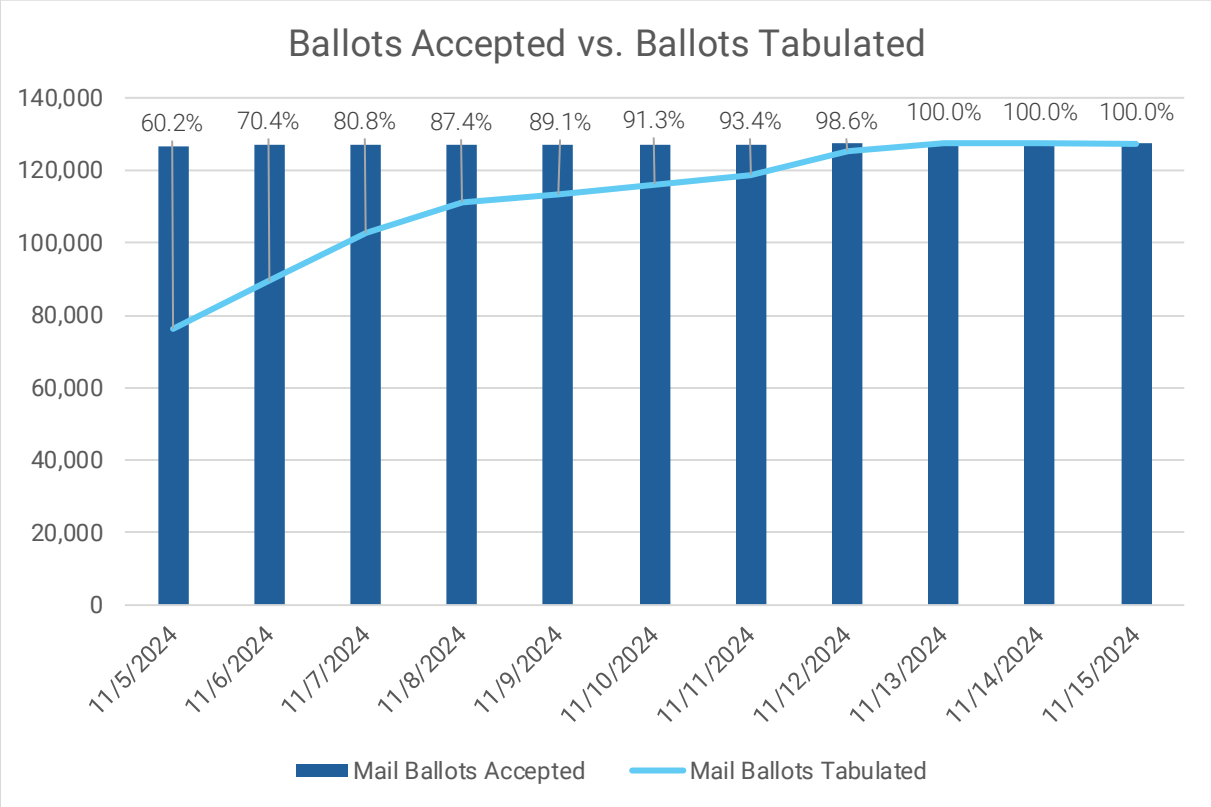

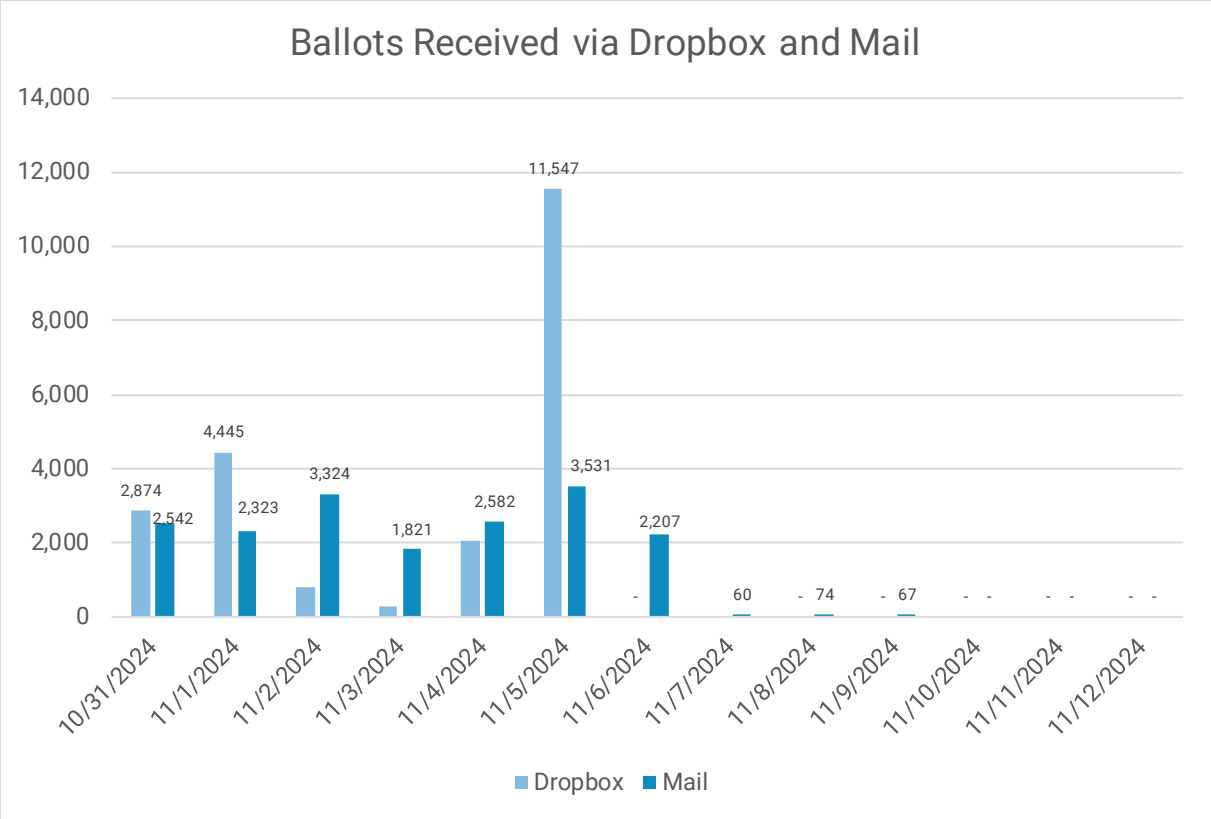

Timeline of the 2024 General Election:

- November 5th, 2024: Election Day
- November 9th, 2024: Last day for a county elections office to receive a mail ballot. The ballot must be postmarked on or before Election Day to be counted
- November 12th, 2024: Signature cure deadline. The last day for a voter to provide or confirm their signature to have their mail ballot counted
- November 15th, 2024: Canvass of the General Election results deadline by the county and city boards of commissioners/supervisors

Definitions:

- Mail Ballot Received: This means the mail ballot has arrived to the county elections facility and is ready to begin processing.
- Mail Ballot Accepted: This means the mail ballot has gone through processing (including signature verification and curing) and is confirmed as an eligible vote that should be tabulated.
- Mail Ballot Tabulated: This means that the mail ballot has been tabulated and the results on the ballot have been reported.
