06/10/2021	3	MINUTE entry before the Honorable John Robert Blakey: This case has been assigned to the calendar of the Honorable John Robert Blakey. The litigants are ordered to review and fully comply with all of this Court's standing orders, which are available on Judge Blakey's information page on the Court's official website: http://www.ilnd.uscourts.gov/ . In addition, the parties must file a status report no later than 7/13/2021, using the model template set forth in this Court's standing order regarding Initial (or Reassignment) Status Conferences. Failure by any party to file the status report by the requisite deadline (either jointly or, if necessary, individually with an explanation as to why a joint report could not be filed) may result in a summary dismissal of the case for failure to prosecute, or an entry of default against any served defendant(s) failing to comply with this order. During the litigation, the attorneys must also appear at all hearing dates set by the Court or noticed by the parties. If an attorney has a conflict with a set court date, the attorney must notify Judge Blakey's Courtroom Deputy, Gloria Lewis, at (312) 818-6699. If appropriate, the Court will then reset the matter. Advising opposing counsel of a scheduling conflict is not a substitute for communicating directly with the Court. Mailed notice (gel, ) (Entered: 06/10/2021)

In their most recent status report, 10 , the parties indicate that they have initiated efforts to resolve or narrow certain issues, and the Court encourages them to exhaust these efforts before incurring the expense of summary judgment briefing or a trial. 09/30/2021	14	STATUS Report ( Joint Status Report ) by United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement (Hartzler, Alex) (Entered: 09/30/2021)
10/04/2021	15	MINUTE entry before the Honorable John Robert Blakey: The Court has reviewed the parties joint status report 14 in which the parties state that they have been unable to resolve or narrow issues, and Defendant is currently searching for records responsive to plaintiff's FOIA request. Both parties state that they wish to present their respective proposed production schedule to the Court after Defendant completes its document search. Id. paragraph 2. The parties also agree that Defendant needs to search for documents (and possibly produce them) before they can determine if summary judgment briefings or trial is necessary. Id. paragraph 3. To allow Defendant time to search for responsive documents and communicate with Plaintiff about the results of that search, the Court gives the parties up to and including 11/22/21 to file an updated joint status report. The status report shall confirm whether Defendant completed its document search and, if not, how much more time Defendant needs to complete it; and whether the parties agree on a proposed production schedule and, if not, the issues regarding production timing about which the parties disagree and each party's respective position on those issues. The parties shall also indicate whether either party will seek summary judgment and, if so, propose a reasonable briefing schedule. Although the parties indicate in their status report, 14 paragraph 2, that they expect to disagree on a proposed production schedule, the Court encourages the parties to continue discussions in good faith to try to reach a consensus.
