

On November 21, 2012, [REDACTED] called to report concerns that she had with the above mentioned center and the care that her disabled daughter, [REDACTED] was receiving. Numerous times [REDACTED] would have soiled clothing when picked up. On one occasion, the center called [REDACTED] to let her know that [REDACTED] was vomiting. When [REDACTED] arrived at the center, [REDACTED] clothing was wet with vomit and vomit was dried on her face. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] had plenty of extra clothing in her bag. On another occasion, [REDACTED] was running a fever of 102 when [REDACTED] arrived and the staff person in charged had not called [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that only one staff person was at the center with 23 children after 9:00 p.m.
