Requirements for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts

a. The courses in Chaucer, Shakespeare, Milton (or Wordsworth), History of English Literature (course 32 in the third year, and English Philology 3 in the fourth year), besides such preliminary courses in vocal training, composition, or literature as may be requisite in each individual case.

b. English History. Students entering credited with Entrance English History are considered as having fulfilled this requirement.

c. A sound knowledge of at least one foreign language and its literature—ordinarily interpreted as requiring a minimum of 16 units in the chosen language, not including German 1 or French 1.

In general, students are encouraged to include among their elected studies Latin or Greek (not less than two years; or, in case Latin or Greek be selected to meet requirement c above, one modern foreign language), Anglo-Saxon, and a course in science, with laboratory work. Students preparing for journalism may substitute for the more advanced courses in literature, courses in Advanced Composition, History, Economics, and Social Science.

For each student in course A, except in the case of those who meet the requirement within a short time, a fee of $10 is charged.

The Teacher’s Recommendation.—The High School Teacher’s Certificate is granted by the State to students who have fulfilled the State requirements as set forth on pages 86-87 of this Register. Recommendation by the Department is granted by vote to students whose work in certain prescribed subjects has been of "high character." The undergraduate courses usually prescribed are: in the Department of English Literature, Vocal Expression, Composition, Shakespeare, Milton, Teacher's Course, and one course in the history of English literature; in the Department of English Philology, Anglo-Saxon and Chaucer. The graduate courses, to be chosen on consultation, should include not less than two units of work in the Department of English Literature and two units in the Department of English Philology for each semester's work taken.

Advanced Degrees

The preliminary requirements for entrance upon a course for an advanced degree in English are: (a) the course for the degree of A. B. or its equivalent; (b) an elementary knowledge of Anglo-Saxon; (c) a sound knowledge of two foreign languages (preferably one ancient and one modern language).

A candidate for the Master's degree in English Literature is expected to take within the year at least twenty-six units in courses (of whatever department) recognized as of advanced or graduate character. Of these units at least six must be graduate courses in English Literature and six must be graduate courses in English Philology. The Master's thesis may be credited (according to the judgment of the instructor under whose guidance it is being written) to the amount of one to five units a semester; but not more than four of such units in the year may apply toward the twelve units required in the two departments.

Preliminary and General Courses

[In general, courses 1-10 are open to first-year students; courses 11-20 are open to second-year students.]
