Hello Samer,

Thank you for your response. We appreciate your courtesy in sending it.

We think the office policy should not apply because the request from the Ministry of Justice should be disclosed under the Freedom of Information Act now that the requested information has been made public in the Republic of Korea, as is consistent with Article 7 of the treaty. If the request is not available from the Office of International Affairs, however, we will continue to try to obtain in other ways. Any guidance you can provide would be greatly appreciated.

Best regards,
Tom

Tom,

Thanks for reaching out to me. I have looked into this for you. Unfortunately, pursuant to our office's policy, and the requirements of our treaty with Korea, we cannot provide information about requests for legal assistance, copies of the requests, or whether such requests have been made in particular matters.

Regards,

Subject: Korean request

Hello Samer,

Thank you for talking with my colleague, Gabe Colwell, and me just now on the phone. As we discussed, Mr. Sae-Joo Chang, our client, has been convicted in the Republic of Korea of gambling while he was visiting the United States. Mr. Chang's appeal is due to be filed next week. We are seeking only one document at this time, and we hope you can assist in providing it because your office has a copy of it. The document is the request from the Republic of Korea's Ministry of Justice to which you responded on November 9, 2015. (A copy of your transmittal letter is attached.)

In December 2015, we filed a Freedom of Information Act request for various documents, but we have not received a response so far. Although we would appreciate receiving all these documents if they are available, the time constraints of the appeal caused us to reach out to you for a copy of the incoming letter from the Ministry of Justice.

Any assistance you can provide will be greatly appreciated. Please confirm that this request arrived in your inbox, and email or call us if you need anything further from us.

Best regards,
Tom
