

The Lansing School District has made the decision not to engage in public dialogue regarding the recent lawsuit filed alleging Title IX violations. We honor and respect the privacy of all of the individuals involved in this case, especially that of the victim. Therefore, we will not participate in the exploitation of this case in any manner. Our legal system has been designed to hear all sides of a claim and we trust that the truth will be revealed in due course. The safety of our students is our primary concern and we approach each situation with the care and concern afforded to us as educators.
