FOIA No. 2012-172

Dear Mr. Morisy:

This letter responds to your recent Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request received by the Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC or "Commission") and assigned to the Consumer & Governmental Affairs ("CGB"), Enforcement ("EB"), and the Media ("MB") Bureaus. Your request seeks complaints "submitted to the FCC regarding Super Bowl XLVI."

CGB conducted a search of the databases in which we maintain the records of informal complaints filed by, or on behalf of, consumers. Our search revealed 222 documents that are responsive to your request, which are enclosed. EB informed CGB that a search of its records identified no responsive documents.

Mr. Hennigan redacted all personal identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the enclosed complaints or inquiries based on Exemption 6 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose files that would clearly invade personal privacy.¹ Mr. Hennigan also redacted some FCC employee names based on Exemption 2 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose internal personnel rules and practices.²

All personal identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the enclosed complaints or inquiries has been redacted based on Exemption 6 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose files that would clearly invade personal privacy.³ Some FCC employee names have also been redacted based on Exemption 2 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose internal personnel rules and practices.⁴

The FCC receives many complaints and comments that do not involve violations of the Communications Act or any FCC rule or order. Thus, a complaint or comment does not necessarily indicate any wrongdoing by any individuals or entities named in the complaint or comment.

FOIA and FCC rules require the FCC to charge requesters for time spent searching for and reviewing responsive documents, and for copying them.⁵ Based on your classification as a representative of the "news media," you are responsible only for the payment of duplication costs beyond the first 100 pages. However, there are minimal fees accrued in the processing of this FOIA request which are not being assessed. See 47.C.F.R. § 0.470(f).

If you think this response denies your FOIA request, you may file an application for review of this decision with the FCC's Office of the General Counsel within 30 days.⁶ Both the application and envelope containing it must be marked "Review of Freedom of Information Action" and the application should refer to FOIA Control No. 2012-172.

Sincerely,

Nancy Stevenson
Deputy Chief
Consumer Policy Division
