Item Text: Should You Buy Organic Fruits and Vegetables? The short answer is yes. But you do not have to buy ALL your fruits and vegetables organic. The main benefit of organic fruits and vegetables is the lack of pesticides. Studies show that pesticides are harmful to human health, and even after commercialized washing treatments and home washing treatments, large amounts of these chemicals may remain. The EWG provides a list called the Dirty Dozen that displays the fruits and vegetables tested to consistently contain the most pesticides. Dirty Dozen 1. Strawberries 2. Apples 3. Nectarines 4. Peaches 5. Celery 6. Grapes 7. Cherries 8. Spinach 9. Tomatoes 10. Sweet Bell Peppers 11. Cherry Tomatoes 12. Cucumbers Generally fruits and vegetables with thick outer layers are more protected from pesticide residues. Item Text: [Should You Buy Organic Fruits and Vegetables? The short answer is yes. But you do not have to buy ALL your fruits and vegetables organic. The main benefit of organic fruits and vegetables is the lack of pesticides. Studies show that pesticides are harmful to human health, and even after commercialized washing treatments and home washing treatments, large amounts of these chemicals may remain. The EWG provides a list called the Dirty Dozen that displays the fruits and vegetables tested to consistently contain the most pesticides. Dirty Dozen 1. Strawberries 2. Apples 3. Nectarines 4. Peaches 5. Celery 6. Grapes 7. Cherries 8. Spinach 9. Tomatoes 10. Sweet Bell Peppers 11. Cherry Tomatoes 12. Cucumbers Generally fruits and vegetables with thick outer layers are more protected from pesticide residues. Check out the Clean Fifteen list to see which fruits and veggies are fairly safe to buy non-organic. Hope you enjoyed this post! Have any questions? Introducing our May '16 Product Release! We are excited to welcome new data sources, advanced alerting capabilities, enhanced analytics and more functionality to the Geofeedia platform.

Our Director of Product Management, Andy Falkenstein, is hosting a webinar session that showcases the new updates to our platform. Register now!

May '16 Product Release Highlights

Our updates are designed to help teams of all sizes and complexities predict, analyze, and act on location-based social intelligence.

ADVANCED ALERTS

Stay ahead of developing topics and trends with the addition of three new alert types, and fine-tune your alert criteria with a new keyword rule builder and boolean option.

NEW DATA SOURCES

View weather and traffic data and tap into new social sources Google+, Vimeo, and Facebook Pages to uncover more insights.

ENHANCED ANALYTICS

Easily visualize and understand trends in activity and sentiment.

Additional Release Highlights

ENTERPRISE

Empower teams of all sizes and complexities to predict, analyze and act on location-based intelligence.

EVERBRIDGE INTEGRATION

Quickly and reliably deliver the right message during mission-critical events that take place in locations of interest.

MOBILE APPS

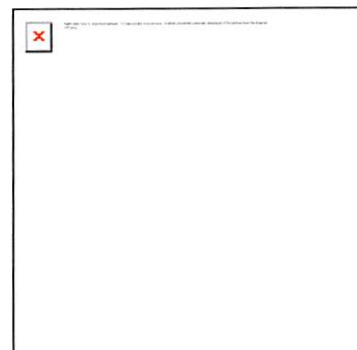

The addition of VK, Vine, and Periscope allows teams to access more data on-the-go through our mobile app.
