2. MEDIA UPDATE

- i. “$15K Fine Proposed For Dakota Access; Construction Complete To Lake Oahe” Oil Patch Dispatch by Amy Dalrymple 08NOV2016
 - 1. Link: <http://oilpatchdispatch.areavoices.com/2016/11/08/15k-fine-proposed-for-dakota-access/>
 - 2. Summary: The Public Service Commission on 07NOV determined that a formal complaint against Dakota Access LLC was warranted as the result of the delayed reporting of culturally significant findings in the path of the pipeline. Dakota Access found four stone cairns on 17OCT but the Public Service Commission was not informed until 25OCT by a third party inspector. The fine initially imposed was $15,000, the maximum fine that could be imposed was $10,000 per day for a maximum of $200,000.
 - 3. Analyst Note: While Dakota Access LLC could appeal the ruling by the Public Service Commission it is more likely that Dakota Access will pay the fine to remove the issue from the headlines. This will likely be picked up by the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe and their supporters to show that DAPL is not transparent and that the State of North Dakota is colluding with the oil companies.
- ii. “Dakota Access Announces Plan to Drill Under Missouri River Within Weeks” Unicorn Riot by Unknown 08NOV16
 - 1. Link: <http://www.unicornriot.ninja/?p=10713>
 - 2. Summary: Unicorn Riot reports that Dakota Access will not slow down its pipeline construction operations in response to a suggestion from the Corps of Engineers that they slow their work rate. Unicorn Riot gives a full report on the progress of the pipeline to include drone footage.

3. Analyst Note: Because the pipeline construction is continuing, it may motivate the protestors to pursue actions outside of ND and execute more aggressive direct actions in ND.
