Process Description (Will display the current progress of the request)

The FBI's FOIPA Program is searching the FBI's indices for potentially responsive documents. You may be contacted via formal letter for all fees and/or negotiation issues that may apply.

NOTE: Recent requests are entered into the FOIPA database in the order that they are received. Before you can check the status, you must have received correspondence assigning a FOIPA request number and the information transferred to the online database. Status information is updated weekly. If a request has been closed within the last six months the online database will display the following: The FOIPA number entered has been closed, and appropriate correspondence has been sent to the address on file.

Thank you,

Subject: Fwd: Final Disposition, Appeal DOJ-AP-2017-004349

Mr. Hardy,

I am an attorney for CNN and journalist Greg Wallace. As you may already be aware, DOJ granted CNN's appeal and remanded our request for expedited processing of former Director Comey's memos of his interactions with President Trump, as described more fully in our original request #1374094 (appeal decision attached).

Given that today Mr. Comey publicly confirmed that the memos exist, are not classified, and he divulged the details of those memos, it would now be appropriate for the FBI to comply with CNN's FOIA request immediately.

Please let us know when we can expect the documents today.

Many thanks,

Drew Shenkman
Senior Counsel, CNN
