INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. Defendant W. JOSEPH ASTARITA was a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and a member of the FBI's Hostage Rescue Team (HRT).
2. The FBI had a policy in place requiring that the Bureau's Shooting Incident Response Team investigate all agent-involved shooting incidents. Defendant W. JOSEPH ASTARITA was aware of that policy.
3. On January 26, 2016, defendant W. JOSEPH ASTARITA was one of a number of FBI agents assigned to the armed occupation of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge in Harney County, Oregon, who were tasked with attempting to apprehend certain members and leaders of the occupation, including Robert LaVoy Finicum and Ryan Bundy, as they traveled from the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge to Grant County, Oregon.

4. During the attempt to arrest the leaders of the occupation, Robert LaVoy Finicum fled the scene of a traffic stop at a high rate of speed and was pursued by members of the FBI's HRT and the Oregon State Police (OSP). In an attempt to evade a roadblock set up by the FBI and OSP, Robert LaVoy Finicum drove off the road and into a snow bank, almost running over an FBI HRT member. After failing to follow multiple commands to put up his hands, Robert LaVoy Finicum was shot by Oregon State Police personnel while attempting to reach for a firearm inside his jacket.

5. The Deschutes County Major Incident Team, assisted by OSP Detectives, led the investigation of the officer-involved shooting by OSP.

6. The FBI Supervisory Special Agents identified in this indictment by their initials are all members of the HRT. Their full names are known to the grand jury. They are identified herein by their initials to protect their personal security.
