WAYNE KENDRICK

CRIMINAL DISTRICT COURT

PARISH OF ORLEANS

CASE NO. 526-496 'T'

MOTION FOR MATERIAL WITNESS BOND

NOW INTO COURT, through the undersigned Assistant District Attorney for the Parish of Orleans, comes the State of Louisiana, who respectfully requests that an Order be issued placing under bond one, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] New Orleans, LA, as a material witness in the above captioned case. This order is requested for the following reasons:

I.

The testimony of [REDACTED] is essential to the prosecution of the above entitled case.

II.

The State has reason to fear [REDACTED] will not appear in Court pursuant to a subpoena. She received domiciliary service to appear at the Office of the District Attorney on December 17, 2015 and she failed to appear.

III.

[REDACTED] has given statements to the New Orleans Police Department implicating the defendant, Wayne Kendrick, in the above numbered case.

IV.

The State recommends that bail be set in the amount of $250,000.00 to insure the appearance of the witness on the scheduled date of trial of February 1, 2016.

WHEREFORE, the State of Louisiana prays that a capias be issued in accordance with Louisiana Revised Statute 15:257, commanding the arrest of [REDACTED] as a material witness in this case, and alternatively, that bail be fixed in the amount of $250,000.00.

Respectfully submitted,

Sarah Dawkins
Assistant District Attorney
