18-01140-FOIA submitted on February 20, 2018 for the following:

All email records sent to, from, or copied to CommissionerStein@sec.gov containing the non-case-sensitive key-string "EB-5" from January 1, 2015 to Present Day.

I have determined that each of these requests is for records related to tips, complaints, and/or referrals submitted by you to the SEC. You have made multiple requests for documents that could reasonably have been the subject of a single request. Consequently, I am aggregating these requests with your pending complex track request, 18-00004-FIFO. Please be advised that other requests that you have currently pending, as well as any request you file after this date may also be subject to aggregation.

For purposes of determining fees, you are considered an "Other Use" requester. As such, you are entitled to two (2) hours of search time and 100 pages of duplication free of charge. Once these thresholds are met you will be required to pay any remaining search and duplication fees. Because you have failed to make payments in the past, the Office of FOIA Services may require that you make advance payments for processing.

You have the right to appeal my decision to the SEC's General Counsel under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6), 17 CFR § 200.80(d)(5)(iv). The appeal must be received within ninety (90) calendar days of the date of this decision. Your appeal must be in writing, clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal," and should identify the requested records. The appeal may include facts and authorities you consider appropriate.

You may file your appeal by completing the online Appeal form located at https://www.sec.gov/forms/request_appeal, or mail your appeal to the Office of FOIA Services of the Securities and Exchange Commission located at Station Place, 100 F Street NE, Mail Stop 2465, Washington, D.C. 20549, or deliver it to Room 1120 at that address. Also, send a copy to the SEC Office of the General Counsel, Mail Stop 9612, or deliver it to Room 1120 at the Station Place address.
