Dear Mr. Bruzzese:

You appealed on behalf of your client, Jon R. Rogers, from the action of the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (EOUSA) on his Freedom of Information Act request for access to various records located in the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District Pennsylvania concerning four civil forfeiture cases.

After carefully considering your appeal, and as a result of discussions between EOUSA personnel and this Office, I am remanding your client's request to EOUSA for a search for responsive records. If EOUSA locates releasable records, it will send them to you directly, subject to any applicable fees. You may appeal any future adverse determination made by EOUSA. If you would like to inquire about the status of this remand, please contact EOUSA directly.

If you have any questions regarding the action this Office has taken on your appeal, you may contact this Office's FOIA Public Liaison for your appeal. Specifically, you may speak with the undersigned agency official by calling (202) 514-3642.

If your client is dissatisfied with my action on your appeal, the FOIA permits him to file a lawsuit in federal district court in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B).

Sincerely,
