III 4	This response describes the museum collections which are held by the NRAs related organiza tions and curated by NRA employees. The NRA Museums promote gun collecting and preservation of history through firearms. The NRA Museums include the National Firearms Museum in Fairfax, Virginia the Frank Brownell Museum of the Southwest in Raton, New Mexico and the NRA National Sporting Arms Museum at Bass Pro Shops in Springfield, Missouri. To make the NRA Museums the finest possible resource for the public, the NRA and its affiliated charities rely on generous supporters to build the exhibition and research collections through cont ributions of historically significant firearms. As individuals grow older and make plans for their loved ones and special treasures, all firearms owners must eventually answer the question, What will happen to my guns when I am gone For many NRA members and other suppor ters, their answer is the NRA Please visit NRAmuseums org for exciting current information on the museum galleries, and please visit NRAgive com to consider your legacy of supporting the liberties that built this country

III 5	This response explains why the NRA may solicit or receive assets that some donors intend to be sold rather than maintained permanently. The NRA Firearms for Freedom program appeals to supporters who may wish to donate their firearms collections to the NRA. When donors intend their guns to be sold rather than held for exhibition or research in the collections of the NRA Museums, the NRA partners with auctionhouses. Donors may choose to have guns sold for various reasons, such as to support current program services or to fund a charitable legit annuity or charitable trust with one of the NRAs affiliated charities. The philant hropic intent of each donor determines how a gift is handled.

Form 990 page 1 shows gross unrelated business revenue on line 7a and net unrelated business taxable income on line 7b. The NRA did not owe unrelated business income tax for the year 2016 because direct ly connected deductions were greater than the associated income in 2016. The main sources of NRA unrelated business income, as shown on 990 Part VIII, Column C, are certain merchan dise sales from the e-commerce platforms, advertising, and other activities not related to the NRAs tax exempt purposes within the NRA Official Journals, NRA digital online channel s, and NRA television programs. Additional informational notes regarding the NRAs taxes are e shared on Schedule C regarding 527f proxy taxes and Schedule D regarding state and local taxes. The NRA chooses to share this extra information about the NRAs taxes, above and be yond requirements, in order to demonstrate in good faith that the organization is a taxpay er in good standing.
