Part I-A Line 1 - American Action Network spent a portion of its resources to support or oppose candidates who agreed or disagreed with our center-right principles by engaging in independent

-----
 candidate advocacy advertising expenditures and making in-kind contributions to a related 527

-----
 organization, the Congressional Leadership Fund, disclosed on Schedules I and R. During the tax

-----
 year, the Network also ran grassroots lobbying communications and similar messages on issues of importance to the organization such as fiscal responsibility, protecting Medicare, rejecting key

-----

-----
 aspects of the new health care law, and center-right immigration reform. These communications sometimes expressed views on the records of the officials the Network asked the public to contact, but the Network avoided any reference to voting or elections and did not disseminate the communications in close proximity to an election. The communications were not classified as political campaign intervention if they were in reference to an upcoming legislative action of interest to the organization, or if they were part of a series of communications on the same topic.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I Line 2 - The Network maintains records that substantiate the amounts and recipients of all grants. While the organization did not make enough grants during the tax year to have elaborate grant eligibility and selection procedures, all grants were made for general support of like-minded organizations or other purposes that the Network's leadership believed would advance the adoption of center-right policies supported by the Network. The Network restricts grants made as part of its legislative issue advocacy program from being used for political purposes, except where such restrictions are redundant, as in the case of grants to a section 501(c)(3) organization. After the end of the tax year, as the Network's grant program expanded, the Network further enhanced its grantmaking process in connection with its legislative issue advocacy program. The enhanced process includes written grant applications, grant agreements, and reporting on the use of the funds, in order to ensure the grant funds are used in furtherance of the Network's exempt purposes.

Part II Line 1 a 2 - Stop Voter Fraud is an Arizona ballot initiative committee. We have not been able to determine its tax classification.

Form 990, Part I, Line 6: Although the Network successfully encouraged thousands of individuals to take action in support of its causes by contacting their representatives, speaking with others about our issues, writing op-eds, or taking other action in favor of the Network's policy positions, such individuals were generally expressing their own views and not acting on behalf of the Network. Accordingly, we have not counted the citizens we mobilized as Network volunteers. The volunteers reported here are our board members, who serve without compensation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 3: During the tax year, American Action Network wound down its Hispanic Leadership Network and did not conduct any public policy awareness events or policy panels in connection with that program. Any social media, digital or other outreach to interested Americans as part of that program was minimal, and any ongoing outreach to HLN members has been merged into the Network's general legislative issue advocacy program. Also during the tax year, the Network's National Grassroots Network program shifted exclusively to online engagement with network participants, wound up all existing leases of office space, and was merged into the American Action Network's general issue advocacy program in line 4a.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4: Program services reported in this section do not include expenses for political campaign intervention or other activities of the Network that do not directly further its purposes according to current IRS guidance. In contrast, some such expenses are reported as "program service" expenditures rather than management or fundraising expenditures in Part IX, given the slightly broader definition of program service there.

Form 990, Part IV, Line 5. The Network did not receive any member dues or voluntary payments from members this year. However, the Network's general practice is to inform all donors, whether or not they are members, that their contributions are not tax deductible as charitable contributions or as business expenses.

Form 990, Part IV, Lines 27 and 28a-28c. The organization had no transactions above the applicable thresholds of Schedule L.

Name of the organization

Employer identification number

American Action Network, Inc.

Form 990, Part V, Line 2a The organization contracted with a separate corporation to provide staffing services, and that organization was the employer who handled payroll taxes and provided W-2s to staff members. The number of employees reported here is the number of staff members provided by the third party.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 1a The Network has a four-person executive committee consisting of Norm Coleman, Fred Malek, Vin Weber, and Tom Reynolds. It is empowered to review and advise on decisions of management in between full board meetings, consistent with the direction set by the full board. It has no power to amend the Network's governing documents, dissolve or merge the Network, approve the sale or exchange of any assets of the corporation, or elect or remove directors or officers.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 3 The Network used Insperty, an employee leasing company, but all significant decisions remained under the control of the Network's officers and directors. Amounts paid to Insperty for Network staff are reported in aggregate in Part VII.B, and to the extent attributable to particular employees it is also reported in Part VII.A

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 5 In 2012, the Network paid an unrelated third-party vendor approximately $300,000 to sponsor a fundraising concert, which was cancelled because of rain. The Network believes it was entitled to receive a refund of this amount, and when the vendor would not agree to do so, the Network brought suit to get its funds back. The parties ultimately reached a confidential settlement of the dispute

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 8b The audit committees and compensation committees keep contemporaneous minutes, but the executive committee generally does not. The executive committee serves primarily to advise management, and thus does not exercise board powers to pass resolutions with binding effect

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11a The Form 990 is reviewed by the President of the organization, with consultation with accounting and legal professionals as appropriate. Thereafter, a penultimate draft is circulated to all of the members of the organization's governing body for review and comment. The organization provides each member of the governing body with a final version of the Form 990, except for confidential portions (which are available for members of the governing body to review on premises).

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c The organization asks board members, officers, employees, and volunteers annually to disclose interests that may give rise to potential conflicts of interest under the Conflicts of Interest Policy. It does so in conjunction with asking for information about arrangements that may need to be disclosed on the Form 990

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 The board (or a committee thereof) reviews compensation at comparable organizations to determine appropriate compensation levels for the President.

For other employees, the President or the Director of Operations reviews compensation for similar work at peer institutions to determine compensation levels. The President reviews and approves all staff compensation decisions.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 17 The organization is an action organization and is not a charity under the generally accepted legal definition of that term. The organization therefore does not register under state laws pertaining to charitable solicitation or similar laws except where it determines that state law is meant to apply to other organizations besides common law charities. Information provided is as of the end of the taxable year of the return.

Subsequent activities may result in changes in these filing requirements.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 The certificate of incorporation and conflict of interest policy are provided upon request.

Form 990, Part VII, Section A As noted previously, the organization's staff were employed by a third party employee leasing company rather than being employed directly by the organization. However, per the instructions, as the common law employer of these employees, the organization has reported their compensation in Part VII as if it employed them directly.

Amounts reported in columns (D) and (F) represent the organization's third party staffing company's estimates of the amount of its charge to the American Action Network allocable to employee compensation and employee benefits, respectively. That charge may not correspond to amounts actually paid to the individuals by the employment company.

Form 990, Part IX The organization occasionally incurred costs shared with other organizations (primarily the American Action Forum), with the other organizations reimbursing it for their allocable share of the costs. In such circumstances the organization has reported only its net amount paid as expenses on Part IX. Such reimbursements totaled less than $650,000.

Form 990, Part IX, Line 11g Media $1,513,615, Surveys $349,416, Other Consultants $82,640

Form 990, Part XI, Line 9 A grantee returned $500,000 of unused funds from a grant made the previous fiscal year. Furthermore, leftover office equipment and supplies used by a third-party contractor to furnish local grassroots network offices were returned to AAN in the previous fiscal year. The estimated value of this equipment and supplies was $37,209. These amounts are reported here rather than being counted as current income or a current negative expense. Approximately $7,000 of depreciation relating to the returned equipment has been booked as depreciation expense for the current year in accordance with the Network's audited financial statements
