III 4	The Frank Brownell Museum of the Southwest and the Bud and Willa Eyman Research Library display gifts and other educational items donated and loaned by supporters. The NRA Museums, including the Frank Brownell Museum of the Southwest at the Whittington Center in Raton, New Mexico, promote gun collecting and the preservation of history through firearms. To make the NRA Museums the finest possible resource for the public, the NRA and its affiliated charities, including the Frank Brownell Museum of the Southwest at the Whittington Center, rely on generous supporters to build the exhibition and research collections through contributions of historically significant firearms. As individuals grow older and make plans for their loved ones and special treasures, all firearms owners must eventually answer the question, What will happen to my guns when I am gone. For many supporters, the answer can be found in the NRA Museums, including the Frank Brownell Museum of the Southwest at the Whittington Center.

III 5	This response explains why the Whittington Center may solicit or receive assets that some donors intend to be sold rather than maintained permanently. When donors intend their fire arms or related collectibles to be sold rather than held for exhibition or research in the collections of the Frank Brownell Museum of the Southwest or other NRA Museums, the organization fulfills those wishes. Donors may choose to have guns sold for various reasons, such as to support current program services or to fund a charitable gift annuity or charitable trust. The philanthropic intent of each donor determines how a gift is handled.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 3	This organization relied on the processes of a related organization to establish compensation of top management officials. Such processes utilized a compensation committee, independent compensation consultants, compensation surveys and studies, comparability data, and ultimate approval by the board or compensation committee. All decisions are properly documented.
Part I Line 4b	The NRA takes a full transparency posture for executive compensation. This comment provides context for the 457b and 457f plans. The related organization has an executive 457b deferred compensation retirement benefit plan for the benefit of certain employees. The 457b plan is employee funded, not employer funded. The related organization also has a nonqualified 457f supplemental income retirement plan for the benefit of certain individuals. The 457f plan is employer funded. The NRA decides the benefit amount and timeframe for vesting of each participant using different factors particular to each relevant individual and his specific desired circumstances. Service costs included in deferred compensation are actuarially determined under FASB ASC 715. The 457f plan is designed to supplement the current tax qualified defined benefit pension plan where current limitations on benefits and employer contributions may be inadequate, and an employer sponsored supplemental income plan can best provide these select employees with the appropriate amount of income in the specific desired situation. 457f payouts are properly included in taxable wages and reported in W-2 income.
Part II	Column B ⁱⁱⁱ Other reportable compensation in taxable wages includes 457b plan, fringe auto, group life insurance benefits, and 457f plan if applicable. Column C represents benefits that will not be paid until the future, including the employer paid portions of the related organizations defined benefit pension plan, 401k plan, and 457f plan if applicable. All NRA affiliates take a full transparency posture for executive compensation paid by related organizations.
