Experience

PARTNER | KING & SPALDING LLP | WASHINGTON, DC | JANUARY 2016- PRESENT

- The primary focus of my practice is representing U.S. manufacturers who have been injured by unfairly-traded imports. I have extensive experience litigating antidumping and countervailing duty cases.
- I also advise clients on key matters of trade policy, including the relationship between U.S. law and decisions by international tribunals such as the Appellate Body of the World Trade Organization.
- I have extensive experience before the U.S. International Trade Commission, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. Court of International Trade, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and NAFTA Binational panels.

COUNSEL | SKADDEN, ARPS, SLATE, MEAGHER, & FLOM | WASHINGTON, DC | MAY 2002- DECEMBER 2015

- As a counsel in Skadden's International Trade Group, I worked directly with Robert Lighthizer, the head of that group.
- At Skadden, I represented domestic producers in some of the largest trade cases in history, including the steel safeguard cases of 2001 to 2003.
- I also advised clients on a variety of issues that raised questions about trade policy, from climate change to ongoing trade negotiations between the United States and other countries.

ASSOCIATE | SKADDEN, ARPS, SLATE, MEAGHER & FLOM | WASHINGTON, DC | OCTOBER 1992- APRIL 2002

- I joined the International Trade Group in April 2000, and immediately began working on antidumping and countervailing duty cases.
- From October 1992 to April 2000, I worked in Skadden's litigation department, which was led by Robert Bennett and Carl Rauh. I worked on a variety of complex litigation matters, including both civil litigation and white collar crime.

ADJUNCT PROFESSOR | GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER | SEPTEMBER 2013 TO PRESENT

- In each of the last four fall semesters, I have co-taught a seminar entitled Law, Politics, and Policy in WTO & U.S. Trade Law. The seminar is designed to give students a real-world understanding of how trade policy is made in the United States, as well as the relationship between WTO decisions and U.S. law.

CLERK FOR JUDGE DANNY J. BOGGS | UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SIXTH CIRCUIT | LOUISVILLE, KY | SEPTEMBER 1991-SEPTEMBER 1992

- I analyzed briefs, researched legal issues, and drafted memoranda and other documents for Judge Boggs.
