 04/08/15 12:22:09

On April 8, 2015 I APA Green witnessed the following; at approximately 10:55Am I noticed a male later identified as (Christopher Duntsch) selecting merchandise without any regards to price. Duntsch then proceeded throughout the store selecting random merchandise and placed it inside the shopping cart he possessed. Duntsch then proceeded towards the vision center where he selected random glasses and concealed them inside of his jacket pocket. Duntsch then proceeded towards the Customer Service area where he received money from another person. After receiving his money Duntsch proceeded towards the front-end registers where he took shopping bags from the register and proceeded towards a secluded aisle where he concealed the selected merchandise into those shopping bags. Duntsch then proceeded towards Grocery Exit Doors with no attempt to pay for the concealed merchandise passed all points of sales. That's when I along with DPD Simler approached Duntsch, properly identified ourselves and asked Duntsch to accompany us back to the office. Once in the office Duntsch admitted to the wrong doing and after recovering all merchandise he was given Wal-Mart's Civil Demand. Duntsch was later transported to Lew Sterrett Jail due to the amount.
