PRIVACY ACT ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL

I write to appeal your decision refusing to release any information on the basis that it could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings.

I was falsely convicted of threatening the President in 2007. I was released from prison in 2008. That false conviction was overturned by the U.S. District Court of North Dakota in 2011.

There are allegations that I threatened and/or attempted to murder President Bush in February of 2005. No charges were ever brought. The statute of limitations for a threat charge is 5 years, so that expired in February of 2010. The statute of limitations for an attempt charge is 8 years, so that expired in February of 2013.

There is no pending enforcement proceeding against me. This exemption does not apply, and I am entitled to see my records. Please produce them.

Respectfully submitted June 2, 2018.
