Dear Ms. Trageser:

The San Diego County Sheriff's Department is in receipt of your email dated June 22, 2018, requesting records pursuant to the California Public Records Act (CPRA). Specifically, you seek records or information pertaining to all the dates that citizen complaints were filed from 2011 through 2018, and the dates the San Diego County Sheriff's Department responded to each complaint.

The Sheriff's Department does not have in its possession a record that identifies the dates of each citizen complaint. Moreover, information pertaining to a Sheriff's Department internal investigations is exempt from disclosure pursuant to California Government Code section 6254, subsection (f). Investigations of peace officers are further exempt from disclosure by Government Code section 6254(k) and Penal Code section 832.5. Thus, your request for records of citizen complaints (or information contained therein) is denied.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM D. GORE, Sheriff
