Below you will also find additional informational paragraphs about your request. Where applicable, checked boxes are used to provide you with more information about the processing of your request. Please read each item carefully.

- Document(s) were located which originated with, or contained information concerning, other Government Agency (ies) [OGA].
- This information has been referred to the OGA(s) for review and direct response to you.
- We are consulting with another agency. The FBI will correspond with you regarding this information when the consultation is completed.

In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). See 5 U.S. C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.

Please direct any further inquiries about this case to the Attorney representing the Government in this matter. Please use the FOIPA Request Number and/or Civil Action Number in all correspondence or inquiries concerning your request.

See additional information which follows.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy

Enclosure(s)

The enclosed documents represent the second interim release of information responsive to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request.

The FBI conducted email searches for any communications to or from James Rybicki's and James Comey's personal email accounts, located within Rybicki's and Comey's FBI email accounts. This search located official government records, non-record personal communications, and email chains where only portions of the chains were responsive to your specific request.

The FBI reviewed these emails. While conducting this review, the FBI individually analyzed the emails to determine whether they pertained to official government business constituting records under the FOIA or whether they consisted of purely personal communications; and whether or not individual emails were responsive to your specific request. Wherever the FBI located non-record or non responsive emails within partially responsive email chains the FBI eliminated these emails and labeled them "Other-Non-Records/Non-Responsive to FOIA request"

To minimize costs to both you and the FBI, duplicate copies of the same document were not processed.

This material is being provided to you at no charge. It is unnecessary to adjudicate your request for a fee waiver as no fees are applicable in this case.
