An Act promoting governmental efficiency.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Paragraph (b) of Section 23 of Chapter 30A of the General Laws is hereby
2 amended by striking out said paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:

3 (b) Complaints.

4 (1) Any individual may file a complaint with a public body alleging violation of the 5 Open Meeting Law, provided that the complaint:

6 (A) Reasonably describes the circumstances constituting the alleged violation;

7 (B) is filed with the public body within 20 business days of the date of the alleged
8 violation;

9 (C) includes electronic and postal mail contact information for the complainant; and

10 (D) is signed by the complainant either in ink or in compliance with Chapter 110G.

11 (2) Complaints shall be deemed received:

12 (A) if filed by electronic mail, on the business day of submission if submitted by 4:00

14 (B) three days after mailing via first class postal mail.

15 (3) A public body must respond to a complaint not later than 14 business days after 16 receipt thereof confirming receipt of the complaint and identifying any remedial action(s) taken
17 or intended to be taken by the public body in response to the complaint; provided, however, that
18 if a complainant files more than five complaints with the same public body within the same year

25 (5) A complainant may petition the attorney general for:

26 (A) review of a response provided by the public body pursuant to subparagraph (3) of 27 this Section, provided further that in response to such petition the attorney general may authorize 28 an extension of time to the public body for the purpose of taking remedial action; or

29 (B) an order requiring the public body to respond to a complaint duly filed pursuant to
30 subparagraph (1) of this Section, provided that any such petition may not be submitted until 20
31 business days after the public body received the complaint.
