

URGENT: Democrat Voting Fraud Scheme Uncovered

Mark E. Harris
To: John Harris

Tue, Nov 15, 2016 at 9:37 PM

Amen! But interestingly enough, the guy who made the claim, Dowess, is the same guy that Johnson paid to run the "absentee ballot program" for him! Guess he didn't like the Dems cutting into his business! Or as Mon said, you can shoot bull to a bull shooter!

Sent from my iPhone

On Nov 15, 2016, at 7:35 PM, John Harris <[redacted]> wrote:

Preaching to the choir.

Begin forwarded message:

From: Russell Peck <[redacted]>
Date: November 15, 2016 at 7:16:13 PM EST
To: [redacted]
Subject: URGENT: Democrat Voting Fraud Scheme Uncovered
Reply-To: [redacted]

Friend,

A massive voting fraud scheme has been uncovered in Bladen County. Hundreds of absentee ballots appear to have been fraudulently cast for Roy Cooper and other Democrats. Initial evidence shows that a North Carolina Democrat Party-funded group may have paid people to cast fraudulent votes to tip this election to Roy Cooper!

This cannot stand. Click here to donate to our legal defense fund to fight back against voter fraud.

We are challenging these likely fraudulent votes, but need your immediate help! There is evidence to suggest that this may have occurred in other counties as well.

Our team is working around the clock to ensure votes are properly counted. Don't let Roy Cooper and his cronies steal this election with back door shenanigans. Contribute to the McCrory Ballot Challenge Fund today!

Russell Peck
Team McCrory

Election Law

John Harris <[redacted]>
To: Mark Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 8:58 AM

See below. Specific provision is highlighted.

§ 163-226.3. Certain acts declared felonies.

(a) Any person who shall, in connection with absentee voting in any election held in this State, do any of the acts or things declared in this section to be unlawful, shall be guilty of a Class I felony. It shall be unlawful:

(6) For any person to take into that person's possession for delivery to a voter or for return to a county board of elections the absentee ballot of any voter, provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to a voter's near relative or the voter's verifiable legal guardian;

John E. Harris

John Harris <[redacted]>
To: Beth Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:21 AM

[Quoted text hidden]

Mark E. Harris
To: John Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:22 AM

So you found no problem in handling "request forms?" I am certain they have them mailed in there!

Sent from my iPhone
[Quoted text hidden]

John Harris <[redacted]>
To: "Mark E. Harris"
Cc: Beth Harris <[redacted]>

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:29 AM

This is not legal advice.

I didn't see anything about requests forms, and I don't think there's a problem with calling people and providing them the forms. Best practice would be to have that person mail the request form personally, but I'm not sure it's illegal to collect request forms and mail them at once.

They are on thin ice by sending somebody out to sign and/or witness the ballot, but technically not illegal if no relative or legal guardian can do it.

The key thing that I am fairly certain they do that is illegal is that they collect the completed absentee ballots and mail them all at once. The way they pop up in batches at the board of elections makes me believe that. But if they simply leave the ballot with the voter and say be sure to mail this in, then that's not illegal.

[Quoted text hidden]

Mark E. Harris
To: John Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:43 AM

Election Law

John Harris <[redacted]>
To: Mark Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 8:58 AM

See below. Specific provision is highlighted.

§ 163-226.3. Certain acts declared felonies.

(a) Any person who shall, in connection with absentee voting in any election held in this State, do any of the acts or things declared in this section to be unlawful, shall be guilty of a Class I felony. It shall be unlawful:

(6) For any person to take into that person's possession for delivery to a voter or for return to a county board of elections the absentee ballot of any voter, provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to a voter's near relative or the voter's verifiable legal guardian;

John E. Harris

John Harris <[redacted]>
To: Beth Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:21 AM

[Quoted text hidden]

Mark E. Harris
To: John Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:22 AM

So you found no problem in handling "request forms?" I am certain they have them mailed in there!

Sent from my iPhone
[Quoted text hidden]

John Harris <[redacted]>
To: "Mark E. Harris"
Cc: Beth Harris <[redacted]>

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:29 AM

This is not legal advice.

I didn't see anything about requests forms, and I don't think there's a problem with calling people and providing them the forms. Best practice would be to have that person mail the request form personally, but I'm not sure it's illegal to collect request forms and mail them at once.

They are on thin ice by sending somebody out to sign and/or witness the ballot, but technically not illegal if no relative or legal guardian can do it.

The key thing that I am fairly certain they do that is illegal is that they collect the completed absentee ballots and mail them all at once. The way they pop up in batches at the board of elections makes me believe that. But if they simply leave the ballot with the voter and say be sure to mail this in, then that's not illegal.

[Quoted text hidden]

Mark E. Harris
To: John Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:43 AM

#55

Wom brought up a good point...maybe they just go with the person to their personal mailbox and put it in, and raise the flag for the mailman to pick up. Since the ballot is already sealed and signed on the seal, they don't pick them up, to my understanding, but rather encourage them to mail it that day by putting it in their mailbox and raising the flag.

Sent from my iPhone
[Quoted text hidden]

John Harris
To: "Mark E. Harris"
Cc: Beth Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 9:54 AM

Good test is if you're comfortable with the full process he uses being broadcast on the news.

It's a legal gray area as to what taking into possession for delivery to the Board of Elections means. Taking it yourself and popping it in a big PO mailbox is a felony. Walking the person to their mailbox probably isn't. Walking the ballot from someone's front door to their mailbox at their request - tough call.

But if in the last race, it was RP instead of Johnson who had done this, I would have strongly advocated going to the press with the analysis of the numbers (22% of absentee ballots versus 2% of other ballots) as well as investigated some of the voters personally to decide whether to refer the case to the DA. So I think you should be prepared for the same.

[Quoted text hidden]

Mark E. Harris
To: John Harris
Cc: Beth Harris

Fri, Apr 7, 2017 at 10:09 AM

Thanks so much.

Sent from my iPhone
[Quoted text hidden]