Dear Mr. Kick:

This letter is to inform you that on February 26, 2019, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) received your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated February 26, 2019. Your request sought:

The agency's FOIA request log covering 2018, which includes a field showing the subject of each request and a field for the final disposition.

Please be advised that the CFPB FOIA Office has a backlog of pending FOIA requests. We are diligently working to process each request in the order in which it was received. Your patience is greatly appreciated.

You have been determined to be a non-commercial requester and provisions of the FOIA allow the CFPB to recover part of the cost of complying with your request. You will be charged for the search (after the first two hours) and duplication (after the first 100 pages) costs in accordance with the CFPB Interim FOIA regulations as applicable to commercial requestors. The CFPB's FOIA Fee Schedule may be viewed at www.consumerfinance.gov/foia-requests/fee-schedule/. You did not indicate in your request a specific amount you were willing to pay. Therefore, in accordance with our regulations, your submission of a FOIA request is construed as an agreement to pay up to $25.00. You will be contacted in the event there are additional fees related to the processing of your request beyond this amount.

For inquiries concerning your request, please reference your FOIA request number above and contact our FOIA Public Liaison via email at FOIA@consumerfinance.gov or by phone at 1-855-444-FOIA (3642).

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information
