Request Number: 2-22588257851

Dear Recipient:

Thank you for contacting the National Personnel Records Center. We are providing the releasable military service information based on restrictions imposed by the military services consistent with Department of Defense regulations and the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act of 1974. The releasable information requested, if present in the record, has been transcribed, photocopied, or a combination of both, in order to comply with your request.

This record contains sensitive personal information which, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy to the veteran, the veteran's family, or third party mentioned in the record. We have redacted and/or withheld that information in accordance with the personal privacy exemption of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6).

If additional information is needed, the Privacy Act of 1974 requires the written consent (signature) of the individual to whom the record pertains. If the individual is deceased, we must have the written consent of the next of kin and proof of death. The next of kin is defined as: unremarried widow or widower, son, daughter, father, mother, brother or sister. The following are acceptable forms of proof of death:

- Death certificate
- Newspaper article (obituary) or death notice
- Coroner's report of death
- Funeral director's signed statement of death
- Verdict of coroner's jury
- If death occurred outside the United States, any document similar to one of the preceding five, or a report of death signed by a United States consul or other agent of the State Department.

If you consider this an adverse response under the FOIA, and are not satisfied with our action on this request, you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison Kevin Pratt for assistance at:

Citation

TO ACCOMPANY THE AWARD OF THE

Joint Service Commendation Medal

TO

RICHARD B. SCHOTT

Senior Chief Petty Officer Richard B. Schott, United States Navy, distinguished himself by exceptionally meritorious achievement while serving as a mobile security detachment member attached to the American Embassy in Beirut, Lebanon, from 3 August 1991 to 15 October 1991. Senior Chief Schott's extraordinary dedication to duty and sustained superior performance under fire and intense stress directly ensured the success of the American Embassy Mission and the safety of the United States Ambassador, the Deputy Chief of Mission, Embassy Personnel, and United States' interests as a whole. He directly hazarded himself countless times providing personal security for the American Ambassador and Deputy Chief of Mission during their required travels out of Embassy through contested territory. His leadership and cool judgment under immediate threat ensured completion of all assigned missions and the safety of all personnel involved. Senior Chief Schott's distinctive accomplishments reflect great credit upon himself, the United States Navy, and the Department of Defense.

Chief of Naval Education and Training

The Secretary of the Navy takes pleasure in presenting the NAVY COMMENDATION MEDAL to

SENIOR CHIEF HOSPITAL CORPSMAN (DIVER)
RICHARD BUCKLEY SCHOTT
UNITED STATES NAVY

for service as set forth in the following

CITATION:

"For meritorious service while serving as Senior Enlisted Advisor, Branch Medical Clinic, Naval Training Center and Leading Chief Petty Officer, Naval Hospital, Orlando, Florida from October 1988 to June 1990. Senior Chief Petty Officer Schott consistently performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. His inspirational leadership and superior managerial skills contributed directly to improvements in morale and readiness throughout the command's enlisted staff. His skillful orchestration of hospital corpsmen and civilian employees reduced the average patient waiting time by nine percent while providing 86,000 outpatient visits. He guided the Branch Medical Clinic's entrance into innovative new programs dealing with recruit medical rehabilitation and wellness through expanded patient education. Senior Chief Petty Officer Schott's exceptional professionalism, initiative and loyal devotion to duty reflected great credit upon himself and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."
