COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Michael P. Kearns, as Clerk of the County of Erie, New York, by and through his attorneys, MICHAEL A. SIRAGUSA, ESQ., Erie County Attorney, Thomas J. Navarro, Esq., Assistant County Attorney, of Counsel, for his Complaint, alleges:

Introduction

1. The New York State Legislature recently passed a statute known as the "Green Light Law." This law allows individuals illegally in the United States to apply for and receive drivers' licenses, and generally prohibits state officials from disclosing those applicants' records to immigration authorities. The Green Light Law conflicts with federal immigration law, thereby violating the United States Constitution. And it puts Michael P. Kearns in an impossible position. If he implements the Green Light Law, he risks prosecution under a federal statute that makes it a crime to conceal, harbor, or shield from detection an individual illegally in the United States. If he fails to implement the Green Light Law, he risks retaliation by Defendants, including removal from office. Something must give.

2. The Green Light Law conflicts with federal immigration law. The Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution resolves the conflict in favor of federal law, rendering the Green Light Law unconstitutional. Yet the New York State Governor, Attorney General, and Commissioner of the Department of Motor Vehicles require Mr. Kearns to carry out the unconstitutional Green Light Law. By doing so, they are violating the Supremacy Clause. Mr. Kearns, therefore, seeks a declaration that the Green Light Law is unconstitutional and a permanent injunction prohibiting the Governor, Attorney General, and DMV Commissioner from: (a) requiring Mr. Kearns to follow the Green Light Law; and (b) removing Mr. Kearns from office, or utilizing any other enforcement mechanism, for failing to follow the Green Light Law.

The Parties

- Plaintiff Michael P. Kearns is the duly elected Clerk of the County of Erie,
   New York and a resident of the City of Buffalo and the County of Erie, New York.
- 4. Defendant Andrew M. Cuomo is the Governor of the State of New York and, upon information and belief, is a resident of the Town of New Castle and the County of Westchester, New York.

- Defendant Letitia A. James is the Attorney General of the State of New York and, upon information and belief, is a resident of the City of New York and the County of Kings, New York.
- 6. Defendant Mark J.F. Schroeder is the Commissioner of the New York
  Department of Motor Vehicles and, upon information and belief, is a resident of the City of Buffalo and the County of Erie, New York.

Jurisdiction and Venue

- 7. The Court has federal-question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as this suit alleges a violation of the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution, which requires the preemption of a New York State statute based on its conflict with federal immigration law.
- 8. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1391, venue is proper in the Western District of New York because Defendant Schroeder resides within this judicial district and both he and Defendants Cuomo and James are residents of New York State, and because it is where a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim have occurred.
- 9. Mr. Kearns has the capacity to bring his claims against Defendants Cuomo, James, and Schroeder because his compliance with a New York State statute forces him to violate the proscription of the United States Constitution's Supremacy Clause against the application of state laws that conflict with federal law.
- 10. As a result of this conflict, Mr. Kearns faces the threat of prosecution and removal from office.

11. The service of this suit upon Defendant James complies with and satisfies the notice requirement to the New York State Attorney General under N.Y. Exec. Law § 71(1).

Nature of the Case

A. Powers and Duties of the Clerk and the Defendants.

- 12. As Clerk of the County of Erie, Mr. Kearns administers myriad public services, including the recording of real-property records, the filing and maintenance of court actions and records, and the issuance of certain permits.
- 13. Under section 205(1) of New York Vehicle and Traffic Law, he also must act as the agent of the Commissioner of the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles to issue vehicle registrations, license plates, and driver's licenses. These provisions are mandatory "unless and until the commissioner . . . otherwise direct[s]" the County of Erie.
- 14. Commissioner Schroeder has not directed the County to withhold driver's licenses. Instead, he publicly vowed to enforce the Green Light Law "to the letter of the law," even in the face of pushback from County Clerks such as Mr. Kearns.<sup>1</sup>

See Ryan Whalen, Schroeder Talks Drivers' Licenses For Undocumented Immigrants and More In One-On-One Interview, Spectrum News, Jan. 11, 2019, available at https://spectrumlocalnews.com/nys/buffalo/politics/2019/01/12/schroeder-dmv-commissioner (last visited July 8, 2019) ("If the law is passed, he says he will enforce it as commissioner. He acknowledged there may be pushback from county clerks and urged them to voice their concerns to legislators in the coming weeks."); Cuomo's DMV Nominee Says He Backs Driver's Licenses For Undocumented Immigrants, STATE OF POLITICS, SPECTRUM NEWS, undated, available at https://www.nystateofpolitics.com/2019/01/cuomos-dmv-nominee-says-he-backs-drivers-licenses-for-undocumented-immigrants/ (last visited July 8, 2019) ("Once the policymakers have their say and if they pass a joint a bill and the governor signs it, I will fully implement what the legislation says and what the letter of the law is," said Mark Schroeder, the departing Buffalo city comptroller who was nominated this week to become the DMV commissioner. "That's what I'll do.").

- 15. Governor Cuomo also has the power to enforce the Green Light Law by removing from office any County Clerk who declines to carry out its requirements.
- 16. Under Article 13, Section 13(a) of the New York State Constitution: "[t]he governor may remove any elective sheriff, county clerk, district attorney or register within the term for which he or she shall have been elected; but before so doing the governor shall give to such officer a copy of the charges against him or her and an opportunity of being heard in his or her defense."
- 17. The New York State Attorney General is required to prosecute any action or proceeding related to such removal. See N.Y. Executive Law § 63(1) ("The attorney-general shall... Prosecute and defend all actions and proceedings in which the state is interested....").
- 18. Governor Cuomo has publicly refused to assure County Clerks that he would not remove them from office if they decline to follow the Green Light Law.<sup>2</sup>
- 19. The Governor also requested that the courts decide the Green Light Law's constitutionality.<sup>3</sup>

See Marian Hetherly & Mark Wozniak, Governor Cuomo talks post-legislative session, WBFO, June 25, 2019, available at https://news.wbfo.org/post/governor-cuomo-talks-post-legislative-session (last visited July 8, 2019) ("Gov. Andrew Cuomo is non-committal when it comes to removing county clerks from office if they refuse to enforce the newly passed Green Light law. He does expect a legal challenge.[]" Cuomo said: "They are going to start a lawsuit and say 'I want a legal resolution first. And this is going to be a difficult legal question.").

- 20. The New York State Attorney General has the power to bring an action against a public officer who has committed "an act which by law works a forfeiture of his office." See N.Y. Executive Law § 63-a.
- 21. Attorney General James has pledged to "vigorously defend" the Green Light Law's constitutionality, if challenged in court, adding: "[n]o one is above the law."
- 22. In addition, if Mr. Kearns carries out his duties under the Green Light Law, in conflict with and violation of federal immigration law, he faces the credible threat of federal prosecution.
- 23. The Trump Administration has already threatened retaliation against local officials that it believes are interfering with the enforcement of federal immigration law. For example, in 2018, President Trump urged the United States Attorney General to consider prosecuting the Mayor of Oakland, California for obstruction of justice. This threat of prosecution came after the Mayor alerted individuals who were illegally in the United States of a pending raid by federal law enforcement.<sup>5</sup> Cuomo Signs Green Light Bill, WAMC, June 17, 2019, available at https://www.wamc.org/post/ny-gov-cuomo-signs-green-light-bill (last visited July 8, 2019) ("If this bill is enacted and challenged in court, we will vigorously defend it," James said. 24. As set forth in more detail below, the Green Light Law includes, among other things, a comparable requirement to promptly notify individuals with a New York State driver's license whose records are requested by an agency that enforces federal immigration law.

B. New York State Adopts the Green Light Law.

- 25. Until recently, Section 502 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law required an applicant for a driver's license to provide his or her Social Security number, except for certain exceptions applicable to legal residents who were not eligible for a Social Security number.
- 26. On June 17, 2019, New York Governor Andrew Cuomo signed the Driver's License Access and Privacy Act, also known as the "Green Light Law" (Bill Nos. A3675-B, S1747-B), which amends numerous provisions of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law, including Section 502. A copy of the Green Light Law (S1747-B) is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit A.
- 27. Under the Green Light Law, an applicant for a driver's license no longer must provide a Social Security number. In lieu of a Social Security number, the applicant may submit:
  - ... with respect to an application for a non-commercial driver's license or learner's permit which does not meet federal standards for identification, an affidavit signed by such applicant that they have not been issued a social security number.
- 28. Likewise, applicants for such a license or permit (or its renewal) "shall not be required to prove that they are lawfully present in the United States."

- 29. This amendment allows individuals illegally in the United States to apply for and obtain a New York State non-commercial driver's license or learner's permit.
- 30. As Governor Cuomo explained, the Green Light Law was intended to "create a driver's license for undocumented people."
- 31. Additionally, under the Green Light Law, the DMV Commissioner, his employees, or his agents cannot disclose applicants' records to any agency that primarily enforces immigration law, unless the agency provides a warrant or court order signed by a federal judge. Upon such a disclosure, the DMV Commissioner must notify within three days the individual whose records were requested.
- 32. The DMV Commissioner must also require any person or entity that receives or has access to applicants' records to certify that the records will not be used for civil immigration purposes, and will not be disclosed to an agency that primarily enforces immigration law unless the records are disclosed under a cooperative arrangement—between city, state, and federal agencies—that is not for the purpose of enforcing immigration law.
- 33. Additionally, under the Green Light Law, the DMV Commissioner (or his agent) cannot disclose any portion of any record that identifies whether the type of driver's license or learner's permit a person holds meets—or does not meet—federal standards for identification, except to the person who is the subject of the record, where expressly required

See Denis Slattery, Cuomo signs bill granting undocumented immigrants access to New York driver's licenses despite 11th-hour concerns, NY DAILY NEWS, June 17, 2019, available at https://www.nydailynews.com/news/politics/ny-senate-approves-undocumented-immigrants-access-to-drivers-licenses-20190618-eu2gx3xvunetpnifuifjbsvn54-story.html (last visited July 8, 2019) ("You create a driver's license for undocumented people, you just have to make sure you do it in a way that the feds don't come in the next day and access that database with the exact opposite intention," Cuomo told WAMC.").

pursuant 49 U.S.C. Chapter 303 (part A, subtitle vi), or unless necessary to comply with a lawful court order, judicial warrant signed by a federal judge, or subpoena for individual records properly issued pursuant to the New York C.P.L.R.

- 34. In other words, the Green Light Law requires agents of the DMV Commissioner, such as Mr. Kearns and his staff, to knowingly conceal and shield records containing evidence of illegal immigration activity from the detection of federal immigration authorities.
- 35. Issuing driver's licenses to individuals illegally in the United States will, among other things, allow the individuals to more easily evade detection by federal law enforcement.

C. The Conflict with Federal Immigration Law.

- 36. Under federal immigration law (8 U.S.C. § 1324), it is a felony for any person, "knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that an alien has come to, entered, or remains in the United States in violation of law," to "conceal[], harbor[], or shield[] from detection . . . such alien in any place."
- 37. It also is a felony to attempt these acts, to aid or abet their commission, or to conspire to commit them.<sup>8</sup>
- 38. As the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals has explained, "[i]n enacting this provision, Congress 'intended to broadly proscribe any knowing or willful conduct fairly within Villas at Parkside Partners v. City of Farmers Branch, Tex., 726 F.3d 524, 529 (5th Cir. 2013) (quoting 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(1)(A)(iii)).

<sup>8</sup> U.S.C. §§ 1324(a)(1)(A)(iii) and 1324(a)(1)(A)(v)(I)-(II).

any of these terms that tends to substantially facilitate an alien's remaining in the United States illegally . . . . "9

- 39. The Second Circuit takes a similarly broad view of 8 U.S.C. § 1324. 10
- 40. In addition to this criminal statute, Congress has passed other comprehensive immigration legislation that the Green Light Law would frustrate.
- 41. The Immigration and Reform Control Act of 1986 (IRCA) "makes it illegal for employers to knowingly hire, recruit, refer, or continue to employ unauthorized workers . . . ."<sup>11</sup> The purpose of the IRCA is to "combat the employment of illegal aliens."<sup>12</sup>
- 42. By providing driver's licenses to individuals illegally in the United States, and by prohibiting the disclosure of their records, the Green Light Law shields these individuals from detection and substantially facilitates their effort to remain in the United States.
  - 43. The Green Light Law directly conflicts with 8 U.S.C. § 1324.
- 44. The Green Light Law places County Clerks such as Mr. Kearns, who are required under New York law to carry out its mandates, at risk of federal prosecution under 8 U.S.C. § 1324.

Villas at Parkside Partners, 726 F.3d at 529 (quoting United States v. Rubio-Gonzalez, 674 F.2d 1067, 1073 n.5 (5th Cir. 1982)).

See, e.g., United States v. George, 779 F.3d 113, 118 (2d Cir. 2015); United States v. Vargas-Cordon, 733 F.3d 366, 382 (2d Cir. 2013).

- 45. The Green Light Law also frustrates Congress's goal in passing the IRCA, which is to prohibit the employment of individuals illegally in the United States.
- 46. Indeed, the intent of the Green Light Law is to undermine the IRCA's purpose and objectives.
- 47. According to its sponsors and supporters, the Green Light Law allows individuals illegally in the United States to "get to and from work" and "ensure that our industries have the labor they need to keep our economy moving." <sup>13</sup>
- 48. The Office of the New York State Assembly Speaker stated that the Green Light Law "would make everyday tasks such as getting to work, shopping for groceries or picking up kids from school vastly easier for an estimated 265,000 people in New York, including 64,000 north of New York City." 14
- 49. Issuing driver's licenses to individuals illegally in the United States will, among other things, allow the individuals to more easily gain and maintain employment.
- 50. Appearing to acknowledge these conflicts, Governor Cuomo conceded that the constitutionality of the Green Light Law "is going to be a difficult legal question." <sup>15</sup>

See Assembly Passes Driver's License Access and Privacy Act #GreenLightNY, NEWS RELEASE OF ASSEMBLY SPEAKER CARL E. HEASTIE, June 12, 2019, available at https://nyassembly.gov/Press/files/20190612.php (last visited July 8, 2019) (Assemblyman Marcos A. Crespo: "This legislation allows for undocumented immigrant New Yorkers, who contribute to our state economy in so many ways, to drive safely to and from school, work, and home . . . ."); (Speaker Heastie: "The legislation passed today will promote public safety, protect our state's economy and ensure every New Yorker can integrate into their community and care for their family. Making sure that every driver is trained, tested and insured will make New York's roads safer for everyone and ensure that our industries have the labor they need to keep our economy moving.").

First Cause of Action — Declaratory Judgment

- 51. Mr. Kearns repeats and realleges each allegation in the preceding paragraphs.
  - 52. There is a justiciable controversy between the parties.
- 53. Under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution, federal law "shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding." 16
- 54. The Supremacy Clause requires the preemption of state law that conflicts with federal law.
- 55. When it is impossible to comply with both state and federal law, a conflict exists.
- 56. In addition, the Supremacy Clause requires the preemption of state laws that regulate a field that Congress has determined to be within its exclusive governance.
  - 57. Congress has broad power over naturalization and immigration. 17
  - 58. Indeed, the power to regulate immigration is an exclusively federal power.
- 59. The Green Light Law conflicts with the federal prohibition against concealing, harboring, or shielding from detection individuals illegally in the United States.

https://chautauquatoday.com/news/details.cfm?clientid=25&id=286451#.XR9D6ehKjD4 (last visited July 8, 2019) (audio recording No. 2).

U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2.

Demore v. Kim, 538 U.S. 510, 521 (2003).

- 60. The Green Light Law also conflicts with, and stands as an obstacle to the accomplishment and execution of, the purpose and objectives of the IRCA—namely, prohibiting the employment of individuals illegally in the United States.
- 61. The Green Light Law also regulates a field that Congress has determined to be within its exclusive governance.
- 62. As Clerk of the County of Erie, Mr. Kearns is required to carry out the Green Light Law.
- 63. If he fails to do so, he is at risk of enforcement or removal from office, or both, by Governor Cuomo, Attorney General James, and/or Commissioner Schroeder.
- 64. But if Mr. Kearns carries out his duties under the Green Light Law, he faces the credible threat of criminal prosecution by federal authorities.
- 65. Mr. Kearns, therefore, cannot carry out his duties under New York law without violating federal immigration law, and vice versa.
- 66. Under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, Mr. Kearns is entitled to a judgment declaring that:
  - a) The portions of the Green Light Law amending Section 502 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law removing the requirement for a driver's license applicant to provide his/her Social Security number and allowing individuals illegally in the United States to obtain a driver's license, conflict with federal law and are,

- therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;
- b) The portions of the Green Light Law amending Section 201 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law to prohibit the disclosure (and require the concealment) of any portion of any record of a driver's license applicant (for a license that does not meet federal identification standards) absent a warrant or court order signed by a federal judge, conflict with federal law and are, therefore,

  preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States

  Constitution;
- C) The portions of the Green Light Law amending Section 201 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law to require anyone with access to the Department of Motor Vehicles' records to certify that they will not use the records for civil immigration purposes or disclose them to an agency that primarily enforces immigration law unless such disclosure is pursuant to a cooperative arrangement between city, state, and federal agencies, conflict with federal law and are, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;
- The portion of the Green Light Law amending Section 201 of the
   New York Vehicle and Traffic Law to require the DMV
   Commissioner (or his agent) to notify within three days the individual whose records were requested by an agency that primarily enforces immigration law, conflicts with federal law and is, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;

- Provided the Company of the Green Light Law amending Section 201 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law prohibiting the disclosure of any portion of any record that identifies whether the type of driver's license or learner's permit a person holds meets—or does not meet—federal standards for identification, conflicts with federal law and is, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;
- f) The Green Light Law conflicts with and stands as an obstacle to the accomplishment and execution of the purpose and objectives of the IRCA (8 U.S.C. § 1324a) to combat the employment of illegal aliens and is, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;
- g) The Green Light Law regulates a field that Congress has determined to be within its exclusive governance and is, therefore,

  preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States

  Constitution; and
- h) The Green Light Law is unconstitutional and unenforceable.

Second Cause of Action — Injunction

- 67. Mr. Kearns repeats and realleges each allegation in the preceding paragraphs.
- 68. As demonstrated above, Mr. Kearns will be successful on the merits of his preemption claim.
- 69. Mr. Kearns will be irreparably harmed without an order permanently enjoining Defendants from implementing and enforcing any and all unconstitutional provisions of the Green Light Law, and from removing Mr. Kearns from office for his failure to carry out any and all unconstitutional requirements of the Green Light Law.
- 70. As demonstrated above, Mr. Kearns faces a credible threat of federal prosecution if he carries out the Green Light Law, and a credible threat of enforcement and removal from office if he fails to do so.
- 71. The injunctive relief sought will not adversely affect the public interest.

  To the contrary, granting injunctive relief serves the public interest as it removes the conflict with federal immigration law under the Green Light Law.
- 72. The balance of equities and the public interest weigh in favor of preventing the violation of federal immigration law.
  - 73. Mr. Kearns has no adequate remedy at law.
- 74. Defendants will suffer no harm or prejudice from the issuance of an injunction.

WHEREFORE, Michael P. Kearns respectfully demands judgment against Defendants for the following relief:

- 1) an order declaring:
  - a) The portions of the Green Light Law amending Section 502 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law removing the requirement for a driver's license applicant to provide his/her Social Security number and allowing individuals illegally in the United States to obtain a driver's license, conflict with federal law and are, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;
  - New York Vehicle and Traffic Law to prohibit the disclosure (and require the concealment) of any portion of any record of a driver's license applicant (for a license that does not meet federal identification standards) absent a warrant or court order signed by a federal judge, conflict with federal law and are, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;
  - c) The portions of the Green Light Law amending Section 201 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law to require anyone with access to the Department of Motor Vehicles' records to certify that they will not use the records for civil immigration purposes or disclose them to an agency that primarily enforces immigration law unless such disclosure is pursuant to a cooperative arrangement between city, state, and federal agencies, conflict with federal law and are, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;

- The portion of the Green Light Law amending Section 201 of the
  New York Vehicle and Traffic Law requiring the DMV
  Commissioner (or his agent) to notify within three days the individual whose records were requested by an agency that primarily enforces immigration law, conflicts with federal law and is, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;
- e) The portion of the Green Light Law amending Section 201 of the

  New York Vehicle and Traffic Law prohibiting the disclosure of any portion of any record that identifies whether the type of driver's license or learner's permit a person holds meets—or does not meet—federal standards for identification, conflicts with federal law and is, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy

  Clause of the United States Constitution;
- f) The Green Light Law conflicts with and stands as an obstacle to the accomplishment and execution of the purpose and objectives of the IRCA (8 U.S.C. § 1324a) to combat the employment of illegal aliens and is, therefore, preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution;

- g) The Green Light Law regulates a field that Congress has determined to be within its exclusive governance and is, therefore,

  preempted under the Supremacy Clause of the United States

  Constitution; and
- h) The Green Light Law is unconstitutional and unenforceable;
- an injunction permanently enjoining Defendants from implementing and enforcing any and all unconstitutional provisions of the Green Light Law, and from removing Mr. Kearns from office for his failure to carry out any and all unconstitutional requirements of the Green Light Law; and
- 3) such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
