DECLARATION OF BRADLEY WEINSHEIMER

I, Bradley Weinsheimer, declare the following to be true and correct:

1. I am an Associate Deputy Attorney General for the Department of Justice (“Department” or “DOJ”). I have held this position since July 2018. Prior to that time, I served in the Department’s National Security Division, from March 2016 to July 2018, serving as Acting Chief of Staff to the Assistant Attorney General from May 2016 until approximately February 2018. I have worked at DOJ since 1991, including twenty years as an Assistant United States Attorney in Washington, D.C.

2. I did not directly work on or supervise the Department’s investigation into Russia’s interference in the 2016 presidential election (“Russia Investigation.”) I do, however, work on issues relating to disclosure of Russia Investigation documents both to Congress and pursuant to Freedom of Information Act requests. I also participated in the review of the Special Counsel’s March 22, 2019 confidential report to the Attorney General (“Mueller Report”) to determine what material should be redacted. I am familiar with the Mueller Report’s contents and redactions, including those redactions for grand jury information. The information I provide is based on my review of the Mueller report, underlying documents, Special Counsel Office files, and information I have obtained from those who worked on the Russia investigation, including prosecutors and FBI agents and employees.

3. In the 182 pages of Volume II of the Mueller Report, only 5 pages contain redactions of brief references to matters occurring before the grand jury (pages 13, 18, 46, 97, and 105). These redactions are protected from disclosure pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure (Rule) 6(e). The following paragraphs describe the redacted information, and other grand jury matters relevant to the court's consideration, and are protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e).

4. Don McGahn did not testify before the grand jury. Indeed, none of the witnesses for whom the Committee requested FBI Interview Reports (FD-302s) in Volume II of the Mueller Report, see Application at Exh. O, p. 5, testified before the grand jury, with the exceptions of [REDACTED]
