Garry Boulden

The impact of a violent crime can devastate victims and their families without the care and kindness provided by SPD's Victim Advocates. Victim Advocate Garry Boulden provides a gentleness and kindness that should be modeled by victim advocates throughout the industry. Garry has a remarkable ability to communicate and show appropriate empathy in all manner of crises. Garry is willing to meet new challenges as proven in his work at the SR530 Mudslide and the clinical contributions he provided following the Marysville Pilchuck High School shooting. Garry, in addition to his tireless work as a victim advocate, provides clinical support for the countless number of Department personnel in need of peer support resources.

A Homicide and Assault Crime Victim Advocate, Garry Boulden has been working with crime victim families for 25 years. Garry is a constant source of comfort and compassion for the families of murder victims, guiding these families through the difficult process of long and tiresome murder trials. These trials require his daily presence with the family in the courtroom. Garry serves these families with a calming and compassionate demeanor coupled with a working knowledge of courtroom protocol and procedure. Garry has dedicated his life to the service of crime victims and their families, and while doing so,
