Bio for Mike Gallagher (online here <[AMERICAN

Michael (Mike) D. Gallagher is president and CEO of the Entertainment Software Association (ESA), the trade association representing U.S. computer and video game publishers.

Mr. Gallagher joined ESA in 2007. Under his leadership, the association is transforming the perception of video games by demonstrating the influence of entertainment software on areas of daily life such as education, health, and the workplace. In particular, ESA has heightened awareness and appreciation of the value of video games as next generation teaching tools, and their increasing impact on classroom learning. Mr. Gallagher's accomplishments include ESA's co-founding of the Games, Learning and Assessment Lab (GlassLab) – a ground-breaking collaboration among ESA, Institute of Play, Electronic Arts, Educational Testing Service, Pearson's Center for Digital Data, Analytics & Adaptive Learning as well as The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and The John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation – to research and develop digital game-based learning and assessment tools. In addition, he spearheaded ESA's involvement in the Active Play Presidential Active Lifestyle Award (PALA+) Challenge, a joint effort with the President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition that leverages active video games to encourage physical activity and good nutrition among America's youth.

Mr. Gallagher also manages ESA's outreach to federal and state government officials, helping to foster a vibrant operating environment for the video game industry and serving as the industry's voice on issues including intellectual property, content protection, and e-commerce. Additionally, he leads ESA's collaboration with the Congressional Caucus for Competitiveness in Entertainment Technology (E-TECH Caucus), which educates federal policymakers about the economic, educational, and social benefits of interactive entertainment technology.

In 2011, Mr. Gallagher spearheaded the video game industry's defense of its First Amendment rights in the Supreme Court case Brown v. EMA/ESA. The ruling struck down a 2005 California law that would have regulated the sale and rental of computer and video games based on their content, and affirmed that games are expressive works entitled to the same constitutional protections as other forms of art and entertainment.

Since joining ESA, Mr. Gallagher has continued to enhance the Electronic Entertainment Expo (E3), the premier global trade show for the computer and video games industry. Mr. Gallagher revitalized E3, greatly expanding the size of the show; reopening it to all video game industry professionals, investor analysts, journalists, and retailers; and adding new features such as an Online and Mobile Game Pavilion. E3 2013 drew more than 48,000 attendees from 102 countries.

Mr. Gallagher frequently appears as the public face of the industry and regularly serves as an expert resource for major media outlets, including CNN, Associated Press, The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Wall Street Journal, C-SPAN's "The Communicators," NBC News, and CBS News. He has spoken at numerous events and forums such as the Aspen Ideas Festival, the Washington Ideas Forum, The Media Institute's Communications Forum, and Games for Change.

Under Mr. Gallagher's leadership, ESA has won numerous awards for their communications efforts. In 2013, ESA received Bulldog Reporter's Gold Award for Best Use of Digital/Social in an Arts/Culture/Entertainment Campaign for the association's digital and social media outreach around E3 2013 and the next generation console reveals. In 2012, ESA received the Public Relations Society of America - National Capital Chapter's Thoth Award for Issues Management in recognition of ESA's public relations work around Brown v. EMA/ESA.

Mr. Gallagher has also been instrumental in the growth of the Entertainment Software Association Foundation (ESAF), the video game industry's philanthropic arm. Since its inception, ESAF has raised more than $12 million to provide scholarships to women and minority students pursuing game-related degrees, and award grants to educators and nonprofit organizations that leverage entertainment software to create positive social impact in our communities. ESAF also partners with Children's Miracle Network Hospitals (CMN Hospitals) to host Extra Life, a 24-hour video game marathon that raises funds for medical equipment, treatment, and research at CMN Hospitals. In 2013, Extra Life raised a record $4.1 million – more than its total fundraising for the previous five years.

Previously, Mr. Gallagher was the U.S. Department of Commerce's Assistant Secretary for Communications & Information, serving as chief telecommunications and Internet policy advisor. During his tenure at the Department of Commerce, he led successful efforts to pave the way for spectrum based technologies and services, and developed and successfully advocated the U.S. government's policies on international Internet governance. Mr. Gallagher also served as Communications Practice chair at leading international law firm Perkins Coie, during which time he co-authored, "21st Century Communications Systems for First Responders: The Right Call," which offered spectrum policy recommendations and championed the private sector's role in enhancing our nation's public safety communications infrastructure.

Several organizations recognized Mr. Gallagher's leadership in telecommunications and technology issues. He received the Telecommunications Industry Association's "Spirit of Innovation" award in 2005 and the Wireless Communications Association's "Leadership in Government" award in 2006. He was also recognized by former Secretary of Commerce Carlos Gutierrez in 2006 for his distinguished leadership in government service.

Mr. Gallagher holds degrees in Economics and Political Science from the University of California, Berkeley and a Juris Doctor from the University of California, Los Angeles. He serves on the Advisory Board for the Guildhall at Southern Methodist University and Spectrum Bridge, Inc. Mr. Gallagher also serves on the Boards of Directors for the Academy of Interactive Arts & Sciences and the Publishing Advisory Board of Sesame Street.

Subject: Update on potential lapse

TO NON-CAREER STAFF ONLY: Please disregard any furlough notices you may have received. All determinations regarding noncareer exempted employees will be communicated on Monday. Thank you.

Dear Non-career Colleagues,

As we continue to stay hopeful that an agreement can be reached to continue funding the government beyond midnight tonight, we recognize that a lapse remains a very real possibility. If an agreement is not reached tonight or over the weekend, please plan to meet at 9 a.m. on Monday morning in the Lincoln Conference Room, where we will provide further guidance.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Subject: Meeting request re TIH tank car schedule

Hi Caryn,

Welcome back from the mini-shutdown—I hope you are well!

Our mutual friend (b) (6) suggested I email you—I am handling rail, transportation, and infrastructure issues here at the American Chemistry Council and am emailing to request a meeting regarding the phase in schedule for new TIH tank cars, which will have a significant impact on our member companies.

We've recently become aware that the Railroad industry may intend to move forward with their own timeline regarding phase in for new TIH tank cars. This news seems to contradict the attached letter from DOT, where the Department clearly asserts authority to implement such a phase in:

"...we [PHMSA] are the appropriate safety agency to consider establishing mandatory phase-out schedules for Department of Transportation specification tank cars."

Are you available to meet next week or the week after with myself; Bryan Zumwalt, VP of Federal Affairs; as well as Jeff Sloan, Senior Director, Regulatory and Technical Affairs? If there are others who you think would be good to meet with on this issue, I am open to suggestions. I have also emailed Derek Kan and Chris Hess with similar requests.

Thank you for your attention and I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,

Spencer

Location ConfRm-HQ-W30-302-ROA (FRA)
 Mr. Batory —

Congratulations on your recent (and long overdue!) confirmation, and best of luck in such an important new role.

I'm writing to request a meeting with myself and Jeffrey Hirschberg, Vice Chairman of the proposed Northeast Maglev. I have no doubt you're familiar with the project. We'd like to take just a few minutes of your time to give you the benefit of all the background and most recent updates, and the ways in which it involves and intersects with the FRA.

Jeffrey is in Japan this week and next meeting with government partners there, but would love to be able to chat with you when he returns.

Would you have any time to do so the first week of March? I'm more than happy to work through an assistant if that helps.

Thanks very much for your interest and attention,

Best,

Brian M.

Ron—

Per our conversation earlier this week, I am following up to schedule a meeting with the Brightline and FEC Railway teams that will include the appropriate executive, operating and safety individuals to discuss grade crossing improvements and safety programs being implemented on the FEC corridor. I mentioned that I would get you a few dates, but it looks like many of the right people can be in DC on March 8th (since March 7th is Railroad Day on the Hill). Any chance that day would work? If not, I will get other dates.

Thanks,

Husein

This changes the recurring GXTF to Tuesday, since as we discussed the Monday recurring meeting is often delayed, cancelled, or moved due to all the Monday holidays.

Hopefully this will result in less switching around due to holidays.

Time 11:00 AM – 11:30 AM
Subject Discuss Talking Points: Southeast Rail Forum March 28
Location ConfRm-HQ-W31-124 (FRA)
Meeting Website: <https://southeastrailforum.com/>

1. What is the theme of the conference?

The conference theme is “One voice, one vision.” The Topic for the session is Governance.

Governance and how it relates to advancing the Southeast Corridor and eventually maintaining and overseeing is an issue with the Southeast. There has been a VA and NC Rail Compact for about a decade now, but the Southeast Corridor and regional issues far exceed NC and VA.

2. What specific issues would you like addressed? List 3-5 main points and prioritize them according to importance.

1. How groups of states acting as one, or formal compacts, can leverage federal opportunities to progress rail passenger and freight multi-state projects, within President Trump’s Infrastructure Plan and Vision so that there is federal support.
2. What is the role of the FRA in progressing multi-state rail projects, thus building a system that overall supports the national transportation system.
3. As private investment is being considered as a cornerstone of the President’s plan, what does FRA see as the challenges that states and multistate organizations must address early on so as to overcome and progress towards delivery, and how will private operators other than Amtrak be considered to encourage healthy competition.

3. If it’s a panel, are you expecting a brief presentation, or is the format a straight panel? Who is the moderator?

A presentation is welcome to accompany remarks that will outline positions and stimulate questions and discussion. Eddie McFalls, NCDOT Strategic Initiatives Consultant is moderator.

4. Will there be time for Q&A?

Yes,

5. Who is the MC or introducer?

Eddie McFalls, NCDOT Strategic Initiatives Consultant.

6. Please forward a draft agenda.

Attached.

7. Will any other FRA/DOT representatives be speaking at this event? If so, please advise their names, titles and topic of discussion (invited and/or confirmed).

Below is the list of FRA attendees and their role in the conference:

Will Dyer- Potential speaker in OTP session

Peter Schwartz- Lessons Learned in MW/SE Regional Rail Planning, speaker

Lyle Leitelt- Lessons Learned in MW/SE Regional Rail Planning, speaker

Randy Brown – Moderating Southeast Regional Rail Planning Study and State Updates Session

Any questions please let me know. Thanks,

This changes the recurring GXTF to Tuesday, since as we discussed the Monday recurring meeting is often delayed, cancelled, or moved due to all the Monday holidays.

Hopefully this will result in less switching around due to holidays.

The date is the second Tuesday of the pay period.

The time is 9am – 10am

The location will be: W36-102
