Dear Madam or Sir,

We write to ensure our Request for information on civil and criminal denaturalization procedures was properly understood. While the correct civil statutory section, 8 U.S.C. § 1451 — Revocation of naturalization, was cited in some places in our Request, in some places it was not. Though we consistently referenced this provision as the “civil denaturalization” statute, we want to guarantee that your office had a Request in which the statute is similarly cited throughout to avoid any potential misunderstanding.

For the sake of clarity, we are requesting information regarding two statutes:

- Criminal Statute: 18 U.S.C. § 1425—Procurement of citizenship or naturalization unlawfully
- Civil Statute: 8 U.S.C. § 1451—Revocation of naturalization

Please find attached the Request in two forms: (1) a form noting the changes [“Changes Noted”] and (2) a clean version of the Request [“Revision”]. You will see four corrections that now reference 8 U.S.C. § 1451. These corrections have also been faxed to your office.

Apologies for any confusion and I stand available for any questions or concerns. Thank you for your prompt attention to this Request and the information that will follow.

Sincerely,

Natasha Arnpriester

- Tracking Number: EOUSA-2019-001249
- Requester Name: Natasha Arnpriester
- Date Submitted: 12/21/2018

- Request Status: Submitted
- Description: This letter constitutes a request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act. The Open Society Justice Initiative, an operating public interest law center that is part of the Open Society Foundations, a tax-exempt, not-for-profit organization, requests records from the U.S. Department of Justice (1) Executive Office for United States Attorneys and Criminal Division regarding denaturalization under criminal statute 18 U.S.C. § 1425, and (2) the Civil Division regarding denaturalization under civil statute 18 U.S.C. § 1425. We also request records from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”), U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) regarding deportation or removal of individuals denaturalized under both statutes, as well as information regarding the revocation of derivatives’ citizenship which was claimed through a naturalized citizen. Additionally, we request from all aforementioned agencies, information related to stateless persons (individuals who are not considered as citizens by any country under the operation of its law) and statelessness. We respectfully ask that requests contained herein be forwarded to any other component agency of the DOJ or the DHS as appropriate. To better understand and clarify to the public the U.S. government’s activities and policies on the aforementioned matters, the Justice Initiative seeks comprehensive information relating to both criminal and civil denaturalization, the revocation of citizenship claimed through a naturalized citizen, and policies and practice concerning statelessness in relation to denaturalization.
