On the evening of Tuesday, October 22, 2019, Speaker Turzai traveled in his car to his home in Wexford from Harrisburg following session on that date. He was asked to speak on the morning of Wednesday, October 23, 2019, at the Marcellus Shale Coalition Shale Insight Conference at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center in downtown Pittsburgh. His staff member, Sara Kennedy, drove him from his home to the Convention Center in Pittsburgh on the morning of October 23, 2019, arriving at 8:30 AM. Speaker Turzai gave the welcome address at 9:00 AM at the conference on October 23, 2019. The speech lasted 20 minutes. The President of the United States was speaking at this signature event later that same day.

Wednesday, October 23, 2019, was a voting session date. He had to be on the rostrum to gavel in session and to vote. To make voting session at 11:00 AM, the Speaker could not drive to the Capitol. The travel time from the Convention Center to the Capitol in Harrisburg is slightly less than 4 hours without a stop. Thus so, he had to secure a private flight (there were no commercial flights). Sara Kennedy drove the Speaker to the Allegheny County Airport in West Mifflin, about a twenty-minute drive. Speaker Turzai then flew from the county airport to the Harrisburg International Airport. He was picked up by a staff member at the Harrisburg airport and they drove to the Capitol. The flight arrived in Harrisburg in time for him to travel from the airport to the floor of the House for the 11:00 AM start of session on Wednesday, October 23, 2019.

Unlike the Governor, the Speaker does not have access to a state plane. On rare occasions, the Speaker has had to arrange for a private flight to fulfill his duties as Speaker, both in terms of advancing public policy and in terms of being in the Capitol for session. The value of the transportation provided here, $10,988.44, is significantly higher than other instances of similar travel as a result of the security and other logistical concerns related to the arrival of the President that day.
