Q8 Last year, the House of Representatives passed HR1 – the biggest anti-corruption bill in history that will crack down on corruption in both parties. Mitch McConnell, supported by David Perdue and Kelly Loeffler, has refused to allow a fair up or down vote on the bill, which prevents politicians from profiting off their offices by strengthening ethics laws and lobbying rules, limiting the influence of wealthy donors, and stopping secret corporate money from boosting their campaigns. Do you support or oppose HR1?

Support 55%

Q9 As a small business owner and investigative journalist Jon Ossoff has always fought for transparency and against corruption. It's why he refuses to accept a dime of corporate PAC money. His campaign is driven by small donors. If elected, Jon will work for the people of Georgia – not special interests in Washington. David Perdue is part of Mitch McConnell's corrupt majority and has taken over $2.6 million in contributions from corporate PACs. He was implicated in potentially using insider information to profit from the coronavirus pandemic. Having heard this, let me ask you again: If the election for US Senate were held today, and the candidates were Democrat Jon Ossoff and Republican David Perdue, who would you vote for?
