instrument inconsistent with this Treaty. For the purpose of this paragraph each Party reaffirms that in the event of any inconsistency between their existing treaty obligations and this Treaty, the Parties undertake not to enter into any obligations, or to accede to any obligations, in contravention of this Treaty. Subject to Article 10 of the Charter of the United Nations, in the event of a conflict between the obligations of the Parties under the present Treaty and any of their other obligations, the obligations under this Treaty shall be binding and implemented. The Parties further undertake to adopt any legislation or other internal legal procedure necessary in order to implement this Treaty, and to repeal any national legislation or official publications inconsistent with this Treaty.

12. Ratification and Entry into Force: This Treaty shall be ratified by both Parties as soon as practicable, in conformity with their respective national procedures and will enter into force following the exchange of instruments of ratification.

13. Settlement of Disputes: Disputes arising out of the application or interpretation of this Treaty shall be resolved by negotiation. Any such disputes which cannot be settled by negotiation may be referred to a commission or arbitration subject to the agreement of the Parties.

14. Registration: This Treaty shall be transmitted to the Secretary-General of the United Nations for registration in accordance with the provisions of Article 102 of the Charter of the United Nations.
