- All materials and communications pertaining to Attorney General Sessions's China Initiative announced on November 1, 2018, and any planning stages or review of the Initiative, including materials and communications pertaining to the legal basis for or legality of the Initiative, dated on or between January 1, 2018 and the present. See Attorney General Jeff Session[s]'s China Initiative Fact Sheet (Nov. 1, 2018), <https://www.justice.gov/opa/speech/file/1107256/download>.

The term "materials" as used in these FOIA requests includes, but is not limited to, papers, instruments, data, documents, records, reports, memoranda, letters, agreements, employee notes, meeting notes, transcripts, and other documentary evidence, whether in paper form or stored on audiotape, videotape, computer, electronic, magnetic, or any other media. The term "communications" as used in these FOIA requests includes, but is not limited to, correspondence, emails, letters, faxes, and messages of any kind, including text, voicemail, video, or other electronic messages.

This is a commercial-use request. I agree on behalf of Huawei to pay all reasonable search, review, and reproduction costs incurred in connection with the processing of this request, but please contact me in the event that these costs will exceed $1,000 so I can better understand the nature of the costs.

I request expedited processing of this request on the ground that the EDNY Indictment, the arrest of Ms. Meng, the United States-China trade relationship, and 5G technology and competition have been the subjects of widespread and exceptional media interest, and the information sought by this request involves possible questions about the government's integrity that affect public confidence, as well as matters of general public and economic interest. I further request that a copy of the documents described above be provided by June 1, 2019, or alternatively, that you please contact me if you anticipate this request's processing extending beyond that date.
