Request for "studies" about harm to an agency

The FOIA Improvement Act of 2016 provides that agencies shall withhold information "only if the agency reasonably foresees that disclosure would harm an interest protected by an exemption."

How are you able to foresee that harm will result if a particular document is disclosed? What information do you rely upon?

Louise Trauma Center hereby requests a copy of all records concerning:

"studies, analyses, research, memoranda, information, instructions, reports, and documents concerning the harm mentioned above"

Dates: from June 1, 2015 to the date you begin to search

Sincerely,

/s/ Louise Trauma Center LLC
